

MTA Starts Service On Highland Branch Line This Saturday

Saturday will mark not only the birthday of our nation but also the official start of MTA rapid transit service to the south side of Newton.

At 6:50 on the morning of the Fourth a car will leave the Riverside station bound for Park street on the first trip for the general public over the old Highland Branch of the Boston & Albany railroad.

Only a handful of passengers and MTA officials are expected to be on hand for the historic occasion.

Not until next Monday will start of public service will be commuted by riding the line in large numbers. It will be then that the service will be put to its first real test.

An imposing array of dignitaries headed by Governor Foster Furcolo and Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., attended the dedication of the new line on Tuesday.

They also enjoyed the distinction of taking the first ride on the new line and having a preview of the speedy MTA service soon to be available to persons commuting

Final details for the actual start of public service will be perfected between Tuesday's dedication and Saturday morning.

The experience gained on Saturday and Sunday, when travel will be light, will assist MTA officials in handling the flood of commuters expected starting Monday.

Spacious parking areas accommodating more than 2400 automobiles are located at five of the stations in Newton.

Free-for-All Battle Looms To Succeed Mayor Whitmore

A free-for-all battle for the right to succeed Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., at the head of Newton's city government was beginning to take shape this week in the wake of the surprise announcement by Whitmore that he will not seek reelection.

Two candidates already have issued statements declaring their intention of entering the mayoralty race. Two have nomination papers in circulation but haven't yet made any formal announcement. Two others have their hats in their hands, apparently ready to toss them into the ring at the appropriate time.

A possible contender for whom a good deal of support appears to be developing if he decides to move into the contest is City Clerk Monte G. Basbas, a recognized expert on municipal problems. Basbas is expected to run.

Also being mentioned by various groups in the city as a prospective candidate is School Committee Chairman Haskell C. Freedman. Up to the present time, however, Freedman has adopted a wait-and-see attitude.

First candidate to jump into the mayoralty fight after Mayor Whitmore disclosed that he will retire to private life at the end of this year was Alderman Leo M. Cannon.

Nab 3 Youths For 5 Breaks At Norumbega

Two Auburndale brothers and their cousin have allegedly admitted five breaks at Norumbega Park during 1958, but denied two recent burglaries which netted thieves an estimated $500 in charge.

Newton police arrested the three youths while investigating the two recent robberies. Police believe the latest breaks were committed by other thieves.

Some 85 machines in the Penny Arcade and coin vending machines in the Tottum Pole Ballroom had been rifled.

Here's A New Motor Problem

Kitten's Sit-Down Strike Stalls Car

You think a tiny, little ball of a kitten disappearing into the complicated innards of the underside of a modern automobile doesn't present a problem—especially if the family is anxious to take off on a shopping tour?

For a decisive answer in the affirmative, talk to the Edward Ginsburgs at 95 Athelstone road, Newton Centre.

The younger Ginsburgs, daughter, sidled under the Robert, age 6, and Arlene, age 10, had just received the frolicsome kitten for a pet. They promptly named it "Rainbow" and took it out in the yard to play.

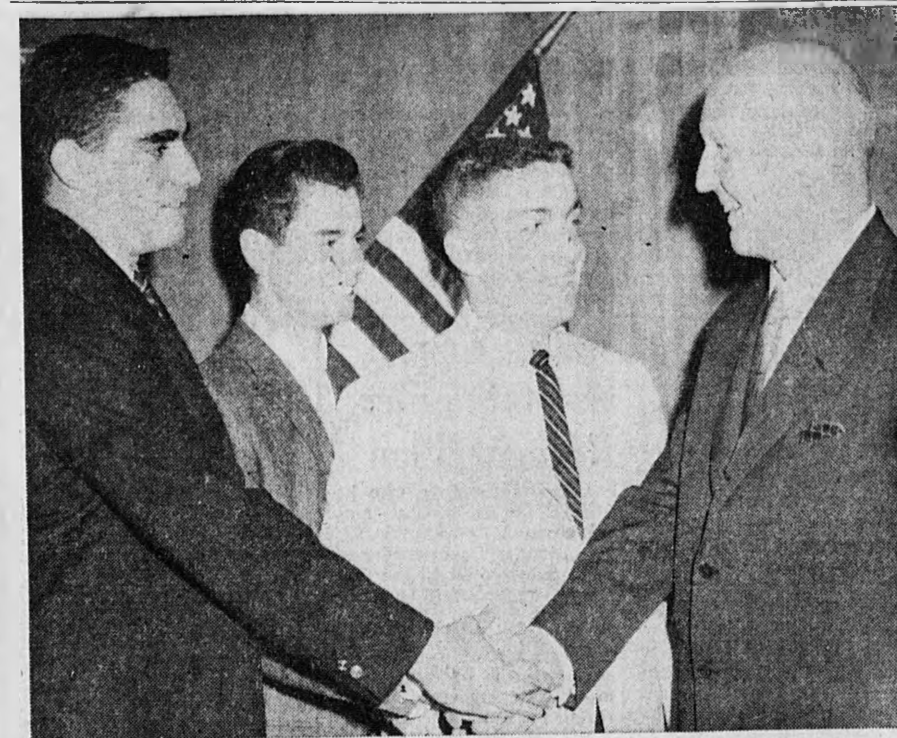

In a wink of an eye, the kitten whisked into the garage and disappeared up into the underside of the family car.

Failure of the pet to reappear brought Ginsburg senior onto the scene. He pooh-poohed the fears of his

Probe Big Theft Of Regis Stamp Rarities

Detectives from the office of Middlesex County District Attorney James L. O'Dea, Jr., have joined Weston police in probing the theft of valuable postage stamps from the collection of Cardinal Spellman at Regis College in Weston.

The thieves, who knew exactly what they wanted and where it was kept in the new Regis Library Building, broke in Sunday night, or early Monday.

Estimates of the loss ranged from $10,000 to $100,000. More than half of the world-famed collection was looted, much of it irreplaceable.

Joseph Landry of Auburndale and Albert Maged, Boston stamp dealers familiar with the collection, were engaged to catalogue the Spellman material to determine exactly what had been stolen.

The robbery may have been the work of a gang of international philatelic pirates. The Spellman robbery was the latest in a series of major thefts from stamp dealers and exhibitors in all parts of the country in the past half dozen years.

Estimates of the total loot ranged upward of $2 million. In each instance the thieves took only the most valuable portions of the victim's material.

Sister M. Fidelma, curator of the Spellman collection, said the stolen material was fully insured.

"The burglars knew stamps and knew the location of the various collections in the unmarked drawers," she said. "They were after United States material and passed over much of the rest."

The thieves stole four large volumes of U.S. 19th century classics in unused condition.

"Suburbia Today" Lists Vacation Fun Next Week

The July issue of "Suburbia Today" arrives with this newspaper next week. It's a happy, summertime number with bright and entertaining features notable for their variety both in content and location.

Jerome Weidman, author of such best sellers as "Enemy Camp" and "What's In It For Me?" has a hilarious lament in the July issue. Mr. Weidman is reversing his field and is leaving the suburbs for the city.

Weidman says he's had it in Suburbia and will return to the metropolis with his wife and two growing boys. But he stops packing long enough to tell us his reasons for doing so.

Boating is fast becoming America's number one sport. The July Suburbia takes us aboard as we tour the country's waterways, dropping anchor here and there at some of our marinas.

These are virtually suburbs-on-their-own, providing both mooring and servicing facilities for boats and a myriad of other services for boat owners, including laundry, baby sitters, secretaries and interior decorators.

There is a story on Cranbrook, the fabulous Suburban

Neighborhoods To Vie For Best 4th Activities

Spectacular fireworks displays in Newton Centre and Newton Upper Falls Saturday night will climax a gala Fourth of July celebration in the Garden City.

More than 30,000 persons are expected to converge on the Newton Centre Playground to enjoy a brilliant fireworks show which will get underway about 9 o'clock on the holiday evening.

A somewhat smaller crowd will gather at the Newton Upper Falls Playground to watch as the exploding rockets trace their fiery course against the black backdrop of the summer sky.

Residents in both the Newton Centre and Upper Falls districts have worked hard to line up outstanding Independence Day programs.

In addition to raising funds to pay for the fireworks, committees of men and women have planned races, games, doll carriage parades and other festivities for the children.

The program at the Newton Centre Playground will start at 9:30 on the holiday morning, with bicycle and doll carriage parades. Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated bicycle and doll carriage, the best doll and the best costumed little girl.

Even dogs, cats and other pets will join in the fun, for there will be a dog show, a cat show and a third show for other types of pets, with prizes to be awarded in each category.

Short races will be conducted for the younger children and longer ones for the older ones. Special events for both boys and girls will include a peanut race, a potato race, a sack race and a three-legged race. One race of each kind will be run for girls and one for boys.

Expected to provide plenty of fun will be a shoe race, in which the youngsters take off their shoes and pile them in a heap in the middle of the course. They have to find their own shoes, put them on, tie them, run back to the starting line and then to the finish line.

Free ice cream will be distributed to the children at the playground.

A baseball game between two Newton Centre teams in the Babe Ruth League will be played at 5 p. m.

By the time the game is ended the crowds will begin gathering for the big fireworks show which will start at 9 o'clock or as soon after — 4TH IN NEWTON —

Whitmore Retirement Means Newton To Lose Fine Mayor

The decision of Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., to retire from public life at the end of the present year means that Newton will lose the services of a man who is ranked among the top municipal administrators in the nation.

Politically, it also means that the city undoubtedly will be a hot battleground next autumn as a number of candidates vie for the right to replace Mayor Whitmore at the head of Newton's city government.

Because most public and civic leaders are still recovering from the shock of Whitmore's announcement that he will not run again, opinion concerning the coming mayoral race has not yet actually begun to crystallize.

Considerable sentiment, however, has been expressed for three well known public figures who have not yet revealed officially whether they will enter the mayoralty lists. They are City Clerk Monte G. Basbas, School Committee Chairman Haskell C. Freedman and State Senator Donald L. Gibbs.

Basbas and Gibbs are believed to be on the verge of moving into the fight. Freedman's status is more uncertain. He is sitting back awaiting further developments.

Already in the field are Alderman Leo M. Cannon, Alderman Paul S. Rich, Norman E. Moore, former secretary to the late Attorney General George F. Ingalls, and former State Senator Richard H. Lee.

Back through the years Newton has been fortunate in the calibre of the men who have served it as Mayor and directed the operations of its municipal government.

New Branch Savings Bank Authorized

The Newton Savings Bank has been granted permission to establish a branch office in the Chestnut Hill shopping area in the vicinity of Boylston street, and Hammond Pond Parkway.

It is expected the new office will be open for business within six months.

The extension of mutual thrift services to this thickly populated and highly developed shopping area will mark the sixth branch office for the 130 year old bank. Its first branch was opened in Wellesley in 1946. Others are located in Needham, started in 1948, Newton Highlands, Newton Centre and 289 Washington street, Newton.

The Newton Savings Bank, the 10th largest in the state, has over 64,000 depositors with total deposits of over $81,700,000 fully insured and further protected by a surplus of $8,186,000.

The deposits include over $936,000 saved by more than 15,400 school savers in 733 rooms in schools in Newton, Wellesley and Needham.

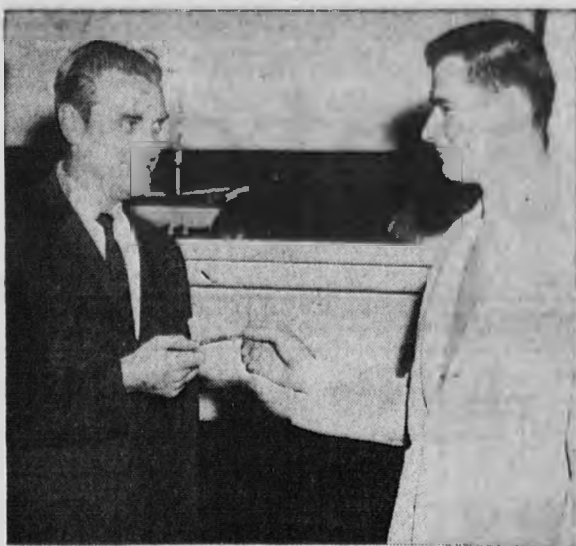

Total assets, including those of the savings bank life insurance department, have passed the $100 million mark. Permission for the new branch was given by State Bank Commissioner Edward A. Counihan III after a public hearing last week at the State House at which Bank President Frederick C. Ober presented a 28-page brief outlining how the new thrift facility would benefit the area.

kitten into eye-range, or produce one "meow."

Finally, a neighbor's German shepherd dog was enlisted in the campaign to flush out Rainbow.

The canine private-eye, named "Manny" was directed to the underpart of the automobile, a very silly business as far as the animal was concerned.

Suddenly, the dog began to sniff and whimper at the dark area over the rear left wheel. Father's flashlight had failed previously to reveal any traces of the feline.

Hunks of succulent tuna-fish were next rushed into the area and held temptingly up and under the car near the wheel. Sure enough, Rainbow's bright little eyes popped over the top of the tire. A "meow" expressed appreciation for the proffered treat.

Ginsburg senior once again went under the car and the allure of the tuna, finally collared the little cat, dirty, full of grease but otherwise in perfect condition.

Rainbow finished its dinner in the house while Mr. and Mrs. Ginsburg were off to the bazaars—almost an hour later than they had anticipated.

Moore Is Candidate For Mayor

The first hat in the ring for Mayor of Newton belongs to Norman E. Moore of 48 Windermere Rd., aide to the late Republican Attorney General George Fingold.

Moore's announced entry into the race follows the decision of Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., to retire from politics at the end of his current term.

In his announcement, Moore declared that "the political machine in Newton, which has been slowly but surely, disintegrating must be wholly demolished . . . for the City of Newton can afford no longer to be run by older men who run it like a private club."

Moore recently was appointed by Gov. Furcolo and confirmed by the Executive Council to the $7600 post on the Massachusetts Beverages Control Commission.

Sometimes the smartest thing is to WAIT

PATIENCE is about the first thing you must LEARN if you want to achieve wealth. You must learn to wait, wait, WAIT! Nervous money usually gets spent, wasted or LOST.

Abraham Lincoln said: "A man watches his pear tree day after day, impatient for the ripening of the fruit. Let him attempt to force the process and he may spoil both fruit and tree. But let him patiently WAIT, and the ripe fruit at length falls into his lap.

Girls To Dip Candles At Big Scout Roundup

By MARGARET McLEAN

We're on our way to Colorado and the western frontiers to meet our Girl Scout friends from all corners of the world.

Each girl is eager to do her best and to show to the others our wonderful city of Newton, bring home new ideas, friends, experiences and knowledge to share with everybody.

To make the trip, each girl needed these qualifications: have completed the 5-point program and have one year's experience in Senior Scouting by July. Included with our application form we had to write three essays on "Our Favorite Camping Experience," "The Roundup" and "My Volunteer Work."

Thirteen girls were nominated from the applicants, and the big test began.

We held weekly meetings at which we discussed the duties, needs and experiences of the girls at the roundup. We learned simple phrases in foreign languages, practiced pitching our campsite and cooking over a charcoal fire, which proved to be quite amusing.

Each girl received a different village in the City of Newton to study—its history, education, religion and people from the time it was founded and make a summarized story of this village.

After three months of training the big night arrived. Hope filled everyone while the judges decided.

Decisions were based on the application, experience, essays, project, a scoring of camping skills, the practice of the patrol system, a personal interview and a group discussion on segregation and the Castro situation.

The girls also required a keen sense of responsibility and are completely dependable, self-disciplined, cooperative and have shown a knowledge of their community and its values and problems. They also have acquired some knowledge of Colorado and its background.

A week after the interviews each girl received a letter informing her of the eight girls chosen and the one alternate.

Since then we have been on weekend camping trips to brush up on our skills, meetings with other representatives and a Patrol Leaders' Conference of New England in Boston.

We have made our patrol flag with a stencil of the Newton City Seal and have placed it on our tents along with a stencil of Echo Bridge.

For our demonstration we are dipping candles in a manner similar to that of the first Newton settlers. We also are using them as swaps.

We are planning to write a few short skits of the underground railroad of the Jackson family, John Eliot, Francis Scott Keys and the story of the first schools in Newton.

Miss Mueller Attends B. U. Palsy Session

The Seventh Annual Institute of Cerebral Palsy sponsored by the State Elks Association held at Boston University, was attended by Miss Sonja J. Mueller of Newton Centre, speech and hearing therapist and graduate student at B.U.

The sessions offered lectures, demonstrations and clinical study on education of children with cerebral palsy.

Battle Looms—

Last Labor Day weekend. After death had taken Fingold from the gubernatorial race, Moore jumped the political fence and supported Governor Foster Furcolo. He was recently appointed by Furcolo to the State Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission on which he is now serving.

Alderman Paul S. Rich took out nomination papers at City Hall, apparently to run for Mayor. Rich didn't actually say what political objective he has set for himself but intimated he will make a mayoralty run.

Nomination signatures also are being obtained for former State Senator Richard H. Lee. However, Lee didn't obtain the papers himself. They were taken out from him by William Halliday. It is assumed that Halliday acted with Lee's knowledge and consent.

State Senator Donald L. Gibbs has indicated that he is interested in the office of Mayor. His interest extends to the point where he already has lined up a campaign manager and evidently will shortly launch a drive for election.

Ironically, no decision yet has been announced in the long dispute over Gibbs' reelection to the Senate last fall, although it is understood that Gibbs will be officially declared the winner in the near future.

One thing which does seem certain is that the coming mayoralty campaign will be the liveliest Newton has witnessed in a long time, with a number of candidates battling for the privilege of succeeding Mayor Whitmore.

MARGARET McLEAN

Senior Scout Sends News To Graphic

Eight enthusiastic Newton Senior Girl Scouts left yesterday for an international roundup at the foot of Pike's Peak in Colorado, and these included Margaret McLean, who will act as The Newton Graphic correspondent for the trip.

Miss McLean, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan S. McLean of 30 Washburn St., was graduated in May from Mount St. Joseph Academy in Brighton.

She was student council officer, treasurer of her class, a member of the Athletic Association and the Drama Club.

While at Mount St. Joseph's she wrote for the school paper, "Le Mount," and last year received an award and had her essay published in the National Essay Anthology, which publishes essays and poems of high school students in the United States.

Margaret hopes to enter Boston College this fall.

She has been a Girl Scout 11 years. She has done volunteer work at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and at Nazareth. Two years ago she received the Marian Medal, which is considered the highest rank in Catholic Girl Scouting.

She holds the rank of Midshipman in Marine Scouting. Last summer Margaret attended the summer school of Catholic Action Convention at Fordham University, New York City, and received awards in typing, shorthand and bookkeeping.

During the past year she has been treasurer of the Junior Legion of Mary in Our Lady's Parish in Newton.

Ted Williams Camper

Police Chief Urges "Thumbs Down" Idea

With the Fourth of July weekend just ahead and the outdoor summer season officially opening, Chief of Police Philip Purcell, of Newton, today emphatically urged the use of a timely new signal and slogan to prevent accidents and save lives on waterways and highways.

Chief Purcell's slogan is short and simple... "Thumbs Down Means Don't Clown". To perform the motion is simple; extend the closed fist with the thumb extended and pointing down.

Whenever a person is seen making a pest of himself, and endangering lives by heedless and clownish behavior in or around a boat, or for that matter in an auto on a highway, annoyed or endangered sensible bystanders can give the unmistakable "Thumbs Down" sign — a universally recognized signal of disapproval.

When the "goof-off" offender sees enough people make this sign, he'll know he's doing something he shouldn't do, even when he can't hear complaints above the motor noise.

Chief Purcell points out that the irresponsible "hot rod jockey" and "drag race show-offs" are the smart alecks who imperil the safety of themselves and others on the highway and in the water.

He requests all local citizens to get behind the "Thumbs Down" campaign. Give the chowder-heads the gesture before they splutter themselves, and others, over the scenery.

Fibrosis Group Plan Drive For Members In Fall

The Newton Branch for Cystic Fibrosis Research will hold a membership drive in the fall, plans for which were formulated at a board meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Leon Singer, of Chestnut Hill.

Current season activities were climaxed by the successful Regency Ball held at the Hotel Somerset on June 13th.

Mrs. Irving Kadet, president, announced the following appointment to the executive board: Mrs. Irving Perlmuter of Waban and Mrs. Jordan Kadet, of Newton, membership co-chairmen; Mrs. Jack Shelman, of Newton, program chairman; Mrs. Sidney Halzman, of Newton, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Richard Rossman, of Randolph, fund-raising chairman; Mrs. Elliott Englander, of Newton, telephone chairman; Mrs. David Singer, of Newton, publicity chairman.

a mountain ridge near San Francisco and in a round house made of redwood and glass. This is a rare kind of abode. The illustrated story is bound to be fascinating.

Of course, there are several features that apply to any place and almost any time. One small piece of Sheer, concentrated fun is an outline on how one goes about crashing a party.

"Suburbia — Any Day" ... is a group of cartoons highlighting some of the everyday experiences that sooner or later are the lot of most dwellers in the pleasant places.

The popular regular departments are full of useful vacation helpers that will enhance the home, the library and the happy hours of summer.

Probe Theft-

They also took two specialized volumes of Andrew Jackson "Black Jack" mourning stamps of the 1863 issue. Also taken were some 100 presentation albums of present-day commemoratives.

Some 100 unique "Religion on Stamps" pages were also stolen. These hand-illustrated velum exhibition pages had been on display in all parts of the world, and some only recently returned from Hamburg, Germany, where they were shown at the IPOSTA exhibit.

The thieves jimmed a rear door of the library, dedicated in December 1955, forced two more doors to gain entrance to the oak-paneled exhibition room on the second floor, and broke into two unmarked drawers and two filing cabinets to get at the material they sought — and then fled.

facilities at the Newton Highlands and Newton Centre stations. A modest parking fee will be charged.

The stations at which MTA parking spaces will be available and the number of cars to be accommodated are Riverside 1960, Woodland 350, Waban 42, Eliot 57 and Chestnut Hill 52.

On weekday mornings, from Monday through Friday, the first car will leave Riverside station for Park street at 5:56 a.m.

The first car will pull out of Park street station for Riverside on those mornings at 5:47 a.m.

At night the last car will leave Park street for Riverside at 12:10 a.m., and the last car from Riverside to Park street will leave the Newton terminal at 12:05 a.m.

MTA officials estimate that the run from Riverside to Park street will take 35 minutes.

A 20-cent fare will be charged for the ride from day on the Fourth of July.

Riverside to Park street. Persons travelling inbound from Riverside who get off at Fenway Park or sooner will have to pay only 15 cents.

Spokesmen for the MTA admit candidly that they don't know exactly what to expect when the new service starts Saturday.

They're not sure how great the patronage of the line will be, whether the service presently planned will be adequate to meet public needs or how long it will take for Newton commuters to change their present habits.

Because travel always falls off during the summer season, a real test as to the number of passengers the line will carry will not come until next September.

Hundreds of commuters, however, inconvenient since the B. & A. ceased running its trains on the Highland Branch, have been anxiously awaiting the day when MTA rapid transit service would be provided to Newton.

That day will come Saturday on the Fourth of July.

VFW Post To Hold Annual Fourth Party

Members of Sgt. Eugene Daley, Jr., Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Newton, will hold their annual Fourth of July supper and dance at the headquarters social hall, 367 Center street, Newton Corners, on Saturday.

Commander Edward J. Woloski has announced that supper will be served at 5:30 o'clock with dancing to follow at 8:30 o'clock.

Cochairmen of the affair are Francis Bennett and Neil McCallion.

Political Highlights

Kennedy Gaining Steadily; Lodge May Be Defense Head

The two most glamorous political figures in Massachusetts — U. S. Senator John F. Kennedy and UN Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., — may be moving toward a head-on clash in the 1960 Presidential election.

Each has a pretty good chance of being on his party's next national ticket.

Kennedy, even though it may not be apparent on the surface, is making considerable headway in his drive for the Democratic Presidential nomination. For a while it seemed that the Massachusetts Senator might be making a strategic mistake in getting out in front too early, for he made himself an inviting target for a wide variety of attacks.

It now appears quite possible, however, that Kennedy will be so far out in front by the start of next year that the other Presidential contenders will not be within shouting distance of him.

While the so-called professional politicians in the Democratic party for the most part have remained cool to Kennedy, you may be sure that they will go flocking into his camp if they sense the rumble of the winning bandwagon.

Reports from the South indicate that Kennedy is steadily gaining ground there, notwithstanding the fact that two of his prospective opponents are Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas and Senator Stuart Symington of the border state of Missouri.

Despatches indicate that Kennedy already is assured of the solid backing of the Maryland and Alabama delegations. That is a bit unusual since Kennedy hasn't yet publicly conceded that he's even a candidate.

Kennedy reportedly also has quietly served notice on Ohio's Governor Michael DiSalle that if the latter isn't going along, he, Kennedy, will move into the Buckeye State and make a fight for its votes at the 1960 Democratic national convention.

DiSalle is one of the pros who up to now has remained aloof from Kennedy's overtures. Having failed in one approach, Kennedy is now undertaking another one.

Kennedy would be assuming some political risk in involving himself in a fight in Ohio, especially if DiSalle's machine were arrayed against him. But it would be a battle in which he would have much to gain and little to lose.

DiSalle is likely to think the situation over long and carefully because he would have a great deal to lose if Kennedy should challenge him in his own state and defeat him.

Under Ohio law the candidates must vote for the Presidential candidate to whom they are pledged until such time as the candidate himself releases them.

The Kennedy bandwagon would move into high gear if he could pick up the big Buckeye State bloc of votes under those circumstances.

UN Ambassador Lodge, meanwhile, is being more and more prominently mentioned as a likely Republican nominee for Vice President in 1960 and a possible compromise choice

Fire Cracker Peril Cited By Fire Chief

Each year over the Fourth of July more and more lives are lost, people hurt and property destroyed unnecessarily from fires due to carelessness, and fireworks, Newton Fire Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., said today.

Fireworks and fire crackers are one of the largest causes of the rapid increase in fires and injuries to people at this time of the year.

"Both of these unnecessary losses can be lowered greatly now by using common sense on our part," the Chief asserted.

Fireworks are prohibited to be sold and used here in Massachusetts as well as the other New England states, the statement pointed out, and it is illegal to bring them into the state from an outside state which still allows their sale.

"Few people actually realize the explosive force that is contained in many of the fireworks," the chief said. "Many of the ingredients contained in fireworks are the same substances that are used in the manufacture of munitions and high explosives for war to kill and destroy."

"They possess both a fire and explosive hazard. If any of these substances should get into a cut or wound, infection may result unless precautions are taken at the time it occurs."

"Lockjaw is one of the common results. The sale of fireworks and fire crackers has been restricted and banned in many states. Massachusetts has banned the sale of fire crackers. The result has been the lowering of fires and accidents from this cause."

"Here are a few simple things to remember when handling fireworks and fire crackers:

"Do NOT allow small children to handle or play with fire crackers as they do the most unpredictable things at all times. They should be shown, when they are old enough to handle them safely, thus preventing injury to themselves and others."

"Do NOT throw fire crackers at anyone or anything and do NOT hold them in your hand to explode."

"Fire crackers thrown into the air could lodge in sections of a building and cause a fire, or they might explode in a person's face and cause the loss of their eyesight."

"Store all fireworks away

Favors Sales Tax
Editor,
Newton Graphic:
I hope the Newton members of the State Legislature will not allow partisan politics to influence their votes on the sales tax. Republican spokesmen have been declaring for years that we need a sales tax. Now when a Democratic Governor has the courage to sponsor a sales tax bill, many Republicans line up against it. Why don't our legislators for get politics for a while and vote for the things which are best for the people?

Community Council Member Approval To Fair Housing

Approval of the Newton Fair Housing Practices Committee as a member of the Newton Community Council was recommended recently by the governing board of the Community Council, Harry L. Walen, council president, has announced.

The Newton Fair Housing Practices Committee, headed by Richard H. Lee and Samuel A. Turner, is interested in making housing available to all people of good character, without discrimination because of race, religion or national origin.

It was pointed out that this group is immediately concerned with the problems of the small group of negro residents of Newton who will have serious housing difficulties as highway developments progress in the near future. They are also interested in maintaining a high standard of well kept homes and in furthering a democratic way of life, by extending to all the same privileges, rights and responsibilities, it was stated.

Final approval of this recommendation by the Community Council at its fall delegate meeting will bring the number of member organizations of the council to 85.

The present member organizations of the council represent business and professional groups such as the Chamber of Commerce, Medical Club, Dental Society and Teachers Association, the various Red Feather agencies and other educational groups, city departments, civic, health and improvement associations.

Also members are the PTA groups, philanthropic and religious organizations, service clubs and women's clubs of the Newtons.

Also announced at this time as chairman of the nominating committee of the Community Council for this coming year was Mrs. Ross Cannon, 72 Highland street, West Newton. Dr. Ross Cannon, her husband, is minister of the Second Church in Newton.

Newton Community Chorus Holds Their Annual Elections

Mrs. Norbert Fullington was re-elected President of the Newton Community Chorus at the annual meeting and election of officers held recently at the home of Mrs. John O. Fisher, West Newton, accompanist for the chorus.

Also elected were: Vice President, Mrs. Lee Carter; Secretary, Miss Helen Rockett; Treasurer, Thomas Brehm.

Board of Directors: Eric Bergquist, Mrs. Alfred Downes, Mrs. Arthur Ehrenberg, Mrs. Marcus Grodberg, Mrs. Amasa V. Jonah, Mrs. Horace McDonnell, Mrs. Gordon Miller, Miss Nancy Moore, Mrs. Robert Schlosberg, and Daniel White.

Mrs. Ingeborg Jarrett is the director of the 45 member chorus. Plans have been made for the 1958-1959 season. Following the meeting refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Marcus Grodberg, and Mrs. Norbert Fullington.

Cymrodion's Meet And Sing -- So All's Well

The Cymrodion Welsh Associates of Boston and vicinity, which was organized in 1892, held their annual picnic last week.

It was staged at the home and garden of Mr. and Mrs. John (Jack) F. Jenkins at 65 Dunklee street, in Newton Highlands.

And a highlight was the singing. This song session followed discussions and reminiscences, and the neighbors in Newton Highlands said what they heard would make any clergyman long for such singing in his own congregation.

The group discussed plans for the first Fall meeting which will be held at Boston's Hotel Lenox Oct. 8. Considerable discussion also centered around the 1959 National Gymnastu Gannu to be held in Toronto, Canada, Sept. 4-6.

At least 15 members from the local group will attend this three-day singing festival. It is held each year and is attended not only by Welshmen from all parts of America and Maine, but by many others who love to hear Welsh singing.

No meeting of Welshmen is considered "official" unless they have an opportunity to express themselves in song.

Members of the organization went to Worcester to attend the morning service at the First Presbyterian Church where one of their members, Dr. R. Lewis Jones, is the pastor.

Membership in the organization is open to those who are Welsh or of Welsh descent. Interest was expressed in the possibility of determining the number of residents of Greater Boston who would qualify. Those interested are asked to communicate with John F. Jenkins in Newton Highlands.

alarms at our Chapel street plant.

"I personally was at the scene on Sunday shortly after the trucks had left after answering a call caused by a sprinkler head falling in our Bldg. 15 at Chapel street. Your men did a particularly excellent job in cleaning up the area after the system had been shut down. It was well cleaned up that it was not necessary for me to call any of my own people in for further clean-up work.

"Of course, it would be nice if these emergencies never did arise, but it is most comforting to know that we have such an efficient Fire Department as we have in the City of Newton.

"My personal thanks to you and your men."

There's Magic In Figures

says Mrs. Horton as mentioned in McCall's Magazine

Today she says: "I want you to know how thrilled and satisfied I am with the Stauffer Home Plan. I am now wearing a size 9 dress and have maintained my present weight with no trouble at all — just the faithful use of my Stauffer Magic Couch. I seldom watch my scale these days — only my tape measure. The biggest thrill of all is to hear the praises of friends and family and to be able to say honestly 'I feel wonderful!'"

Plan Levine Laboratory At Peter Bent Brigham

Trustees of Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston have launched plans to honor Dr. Samuel A. Levine, of 150 Hartmann Rd., Newton, world renowned physician.

It will be a living monument in the form of a new laboratory for continued studies of cardiac diseases. Dr. Levine, still active as a teacher, investigator and medical consultant, is Physician Emeritus at Peter Bent Brigham and Clinical Professor Emeritus at the Harvard Medical School.

The beloved teacher, now in his 69th year, came to this country as a boy of three from his native Poland.

His association with Peter Bent Brigham Hospital spans a period of 45 years. He is associated with many hospitals stretching as far west as Denver, Colo., and is a consultant in cardiology at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

The first step in the campaign for the new laboratory was announced by Irving Usen, a long-time friend of Dr. Levine, who is chairman of the fund drive.

Usen indicated that one of Dr. Levine's many admirers, newspaper publisher James E. Stiles of Rockville Center, Long Island, N. Y., will match contributions to the extent of $50,000. The Bay State Charitable Trust of which T. Jefferson Coolidge is a trustee, will match dollar for dollar all additional funds raised.

The fact that a newspaper publisher should make the first offer of funds was considered a coincidence, because Dr. Levine owes his medical career to his life-long loyalty to the Newsboys Union.

As a boy he grew up in Boston's North End section in the competitive era of boy newspaper barkers. He was quick to promote his sales, often hopping on and off moving street cars. He was sent to Harvard as the second scholarship winner sponsored by the Newsboys Union.

He skipped through school at a rapid pace and graduated from Medical School in 1914 at the age of 23.

He became a member of the early medical staff of Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, and has been associated there since.

Dr. Levine carried on a summer post graduate course in cardiology for 36 years (1921-1956) at Harvard which has been attended by physicians from all over the world.

In 1954 a Samuel A. Levine Professorship was established at Harvard by a grateful patient and personal friend, the late New York investment banker, Charles E. Merrill. This was an honor which carried with it at that time the largest endowment for any single chair in the history of the Harvard Medical School.

Dr. Levine is the author of a basic textbook on diseases of the heart used throughout the medical education world and more than 180 articles contributed to medical literature.

Needham Couple Offer Show On Travels Abroad

A unique European sight-and-sound travelogue is being offered by a Needham couple for club and organization programs next fall.

Entitled "Vacation In Europe . . . With Car and Guidebook" the show recounts the adventures of Bruce and Shirley Fogwell of 158 Richdale Road, Needham Heights, as they traveled in a rented French car through France, Monaco, Italy and Switzerland, staying at old inns and eating in quaint restaurants selected from guidebooks. There are over 600 kodachrome slides coordinated with a specially written tape-recorded narration by both of the Fogwells. "Hi-fi" music accompanies the whole program simultaneously recorded with the script.

Newton Soldier Is Promoted At Post In Europe

Anthony J. DiPalma 23, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DiPalma, 48 Gardner street, Newton, recently was promoted to specialist-five in Mannheim, Germany, where he is a member of the Seventh Army Support Command.

Specialist DiPalma, an auditor in the command's Headquarters Company, entered the Army in September, 1957. He completed his basic training at Fort Dix, N.J., and arrived in Europe the following February.

DiPalma is a 1953 graduate of Our Lady's High School in Newton, and a graduate of Boston College, Class of 1957.

chromes slides coordinated with a specially written tape-recorded narration by both of the Fogwells. "Hi-fi" music accompanies the whole program simultaneously recorded with the script.

Besides being used as background, the music dominates several breathtaking sequences such as along the River Seine, in the French Alps, through the canals of Venice and around Lake Lucerne.

The program is a full evening's entertainment in two acts. The first act takes one hour and the second act 45 minutes. A large screen and a hi-fidelity cabinet loudspeaker contribute to the effect.

After taking five months to write and produce it, the Fogwells presented their European show for several Needham groups this spring. It met with such success that they are planning to offer it to groups outside of Needham next fall.

Seek Traffic Light At Blind Intersection

The Aldermanic Street Traffic Committee has taken under study the request of Newton Highland residents for installation of a pedestrian traffic light at Lincoln and Woodward Sts.

Victor M. Kumin of 40 Bradford Rd., president of the Hyde School PTA, and Mrs. Alfred B. Downes of 20 Harrison St., spoke in favor of a petition for the lights at a public hearing held Monday night at City Hall.

The petition has been signed by 819 residents. Proponents of the light contend the corner is a blind intersection where traffic has not slowed sufficiently after coming off the Worcester Turnpike.

If Hosland Carmichael had been content to remain an obscure lawyer in Florida, music lovers might never have sung "Star Dust", for Hosland Carmichael, attorney, and Hokey Carmichael, composer of popular songs, are one and the same. Chief difference is that the lawyer was a dud—the composer a top-ranking success. Hokey learned to play piano by ear from his mother, whose ragtime playing was the delight of the Bloomington, Indiana, neighborhood where he was born. He played his way through law school at Indiana University with a C-average, and in 1924 by way of diversion composed "Riverboat Shuffle" in the negro spiritual idiom. A group of professional musicians liked the number, learned it from Hokey and recorded it. A New York publisher heard the record, and printed the music. It was Hokey's first published work.

He entered a New York bank as a step towards a legal career, then went to Florida to handle out his shingle. But clients failed to materialize, so he returned to Indiana and a year later, with an orchestra of his own, he made an unsuccessful invasion of Hollywood, returned to New York and produced "Star Dust", an overnight sensation, followed by "Rockin' Chair" and "Lazy Bones." This time, Hollywood called Hokey Carmichael. And there for the past 16 years he has made substantial contributions to the enjoyment of music lovers through the medium of motion pictures, radio and TV. A very substantial contribution to radio and television enjoyment is the availability of prompt, expert service when you need it. Our service department is staffed by highly trained technicians. They are thoroughly reliable . . . and you'll find our service fees reasonable, too.

NEW REGISTRY OFFICE OPENS—Registrar Clement A. Riley, with Registry and town officials looking on, cuts ribbon to open the new Watertown branch office of the Registry of Motor Vehicles. New office, located at 40 Spring street, a stone's throw from Watertown Square, will provide better service to the motoring public of the district. (Roger Walsh Photo)

Open New Watertown Registry

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Clement A. Riley cut a ribbon at 11 a.m. Monday to open formally the new Registry of Motor Vehicles office at 40 Spring street, in Watertown Square.

Many registry and civic officials attended the formal opening of the new branch, which replaces the one which had been at Banks street, Waltham for the past 10 years.

Office hours for the new branch will be from 8:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

There is ample parking available on Spring street, which was one of the factors which determined the new location.

There were lines of motorists to take advantage of the new area office even before it was formally opened by the ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Highland Branch To Boost Newton Share of Deficit

Newton's share of the MTA deficit will jump substantially as a result of the heavy patronage of the new Highland Branch line.

The deficit is apportioned among the 14 cities and towns in the MTA district on the basis of a count of the number of passengers who board the transit system in each community.

Newton will be assessed for all the passengers who enter the Highland Branch at stations in this city, irrespective of where they live.

Early-Bird Newton Scouts Are Signing Up For 1960 Jamboree

Although still a full year away, local Boy Scouts are stepping up and signing on the dotted line for Scoutdom's big Fifth National Jamboree to be held next July at Colorado Springs.

Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, already lists sixteen applicants, the first of which was early-bird Scout Richard Johnson, of 67 Derby street, West Newton.

Richard is the son of an Explorer-Advisor and brother of a Scout who attended last year's Jamboree at Valley Forge.

However, plans to organize a contingent of about 80 Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders to attend the Colorado Springs event were announced this week by Norumbega Council officials.

Albert Hegnauer has been appointed chairman of the jamboree committee for the local council. The announcement was made jointly by Harry Shain, of Waban, president of the council, and Herbert Williamson of Wellesley, chairman of the council's 50th anniversary committee.

Norumbega officials stated that the jamboree contingent is open to any Boy Scout who will be at least twelve years of age by next January 1, and to any Explorer who has three months tenure or more by July 15, 1960. Chairman Hegnauer announced this week that application forms will be available at the Norumbega Council.

8 Hurt In Variety Of Accidents

A boy required approximately 50 stitches to close a head wound, another suffered a foot injury from a power lawn mower, and six persons were treated for hurts suffered this week in three auto accidents in Newton.

Thomas Coletti, 13, of 42 Lexington road, Newton, was injured while playing in the cellar of the unfinished addition to Our Lady's School in Newton.

The boy's head struck a cement beam while he was playing "hide and seek" and doctors at Newton-Wellesley Hospital closed the gash in his scalp.

Also taken to the hospital by police was Peter Sidman, 19, of Mattapan, who sustained an injury to his left leg while mowing the lawn at 11 Sky View Terrace, Newton.

Extra Cars Rushed In To Handle Huge Crowd

20,000 Riders Daily Now Predicted For Local Line

The new Highland Branch rapid transit line to the south side of Newton is proving a tremendous success.

Approximately twice as many persons are using the rapid transit service as was expected.

MTA officials, who have stepped up their rush-hour schedules and pressed additional cars into use, declare there is every indication that the line not only will be self-supporting but will show a profit.

When the Highland Branch rapid transit line was first proposed, it was widely feared that it would prove a "white elephant" and would increase the already mountainous MTA deficit.

That apprehension is now proving to be groundless.

Former MTA General Manager Edward Dana had projected figures to show that 10,000 persons a day would ride on the Highland Branch.

Actually, 19,153 passengers travelled on the line Monday, the first business day it was in operation.

Since there is about a 20 percent drop in travel on the MTA during July and August, the number of patrons using the line next autumn should be well in excess of 20,000 per day, or more than double the number anticipated by Dana.

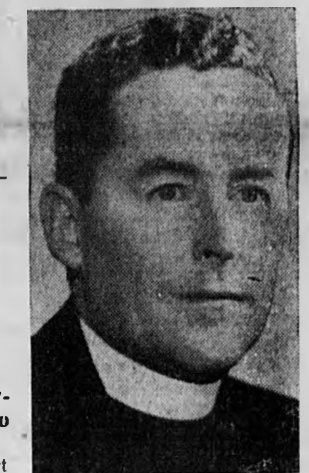

So heavy has been the patronage of the Highland Branch that the rush-hour service has been doubled. Cars now leave Riverside station for Park street every five minutes between 7:20 a.m. and 8:20 a.m. instead of every 10 minutes as was originally planned.

Similar five minute service from Park street to Riverside is provided between 5 and 6 p.m. in the afternoon.

An example of the quick increase MTA authorities had to make in service on the Highland Branch is reflected in the figures which show that on Monday 32 cars made a total of 249 trips on the line while on Tuesday 38 cars made 270 trips.

Commuters who park their automobiles at Riverside and the other stations where the MTA has established parking areas are not being required to pay any fee this week.

Beginning next Monday, — MTA SUCCESS —

NAMED DEAN—Dean of women at Lasell Junior College in Newton is Miss June Babcock, the assistant dean since 1955 and a member of the college staff since 1942. She was an instructor in classics, world literature and philosophy.

Committee On Homemaking Is Dissolved

With the growth and acceptance of homemaker services in Newton this past year, the Newton Homemaker Advisory Committee of the Community Council which helped map plans for this new service is being discontinued, according to an announcement by Harry L. Walen, Community Council president. Homemaker services, provided by Family Service Association of Greater Boston, have been available in Newton as a regular service since the first of this year, when Newton women were first recruited as homemakers.

Mrs. Raymond W. Blaisdell, who has been chairman of the Newton Homemaker Advisory Committee is sending a letter to her committee members this week notifying them of the present progress of homemaker services in Newton and to tell them that the committee is dissolving.

Recruitment of Newton women as either full time or part time homemakers is constantly needed for replacements and to fill the increasing need for this service. Mrs. Blaisdell states in her letter. She continued that "at the present time Newton has one full time and one part time homemaker on call."

During the first five months of this year there were 50 referrals for this service with 24 families being served. No one was refused service, but many were referred elsewhere or other plans were made.

The committee was established to help the new service become known in Newton and to assist in recruiting women as homemakers. Even though the committee will no longer be active, Mrs. Blaisdell will be in contact with the Homemaker Service Department in Boston as the Newton contact.

Members of the committee are as follows: Family Service Bureau, Mrs. Catherine S. Holden and Mrs. Kenneth J. Walte; Newton Red Cross, Mrs. Ernest W. Kuebler and John A. McCarthy, Jr.; St. Vincent de Paul, Rt. Rev. Walter J. Furlong; TB & Health, Miss Hilda G. Hope and Mrs. Maude Kemp; Veteran's Services, Norman Mitchell; Visiting Nurse Association, Mrs. Matt B. Jones, Jr. and Miss Bernice Joyal; Welfare Department, Miss Helen Mulhern and Mrs. Eileen Claffin; Newton-Wellesley Hospital, Mrs. Lucile Palmer and Mrs. Thomas E. Shirley; Family Service Boston, Mrs. Ellnor McCabe and Mrs. Katharine Perlman; Newton Community Council, Miss Constance S. Garbutt.

Members of the recruitment committee are as follows: Mrs. Theodore Clark, Miss Mary T. Baker, Mrs. Chester Lomas, Mrs. Grace Ballou and Mrs. Edward G. Huber.

Donkey Wins Most Unusual Prize At N.C.

There was no competition for the best donkey in the show at the Fourth of July exhibits at the Newton Centre playground last Saturday.

But if there had been, it's a good bet that Jeff Muther and his donkey would have won top prize. Both the donkey and Muther arrived in garb suggesting they were all set to explore the Wild West. They got a prize as "most unusual" among the pets.

Parents and children turned out in force for the gala events, and there were so many stand-out exhibits the officials felt they had to distribute extra prizes.

The prize winners were: Bicycle Parade: Most original, Cathy Muther; most ingenious, Janet and Billy Dietz; prettiest, Liza Ramar; cutest, Betty Mezzoff and Judy Wolper.

Doll Carriage Parade: Prettiest, first, Alleen Waters; second, Armik Demirjian; most appropriate, first, Carolyn MacDonald; second, Karen Amicanglioli; most original, first, Evelyn Clifford; second, Ellen and Jane Raphael; cutest, first, Susy Remar; second, Chris Foley.

Dog Show: Thoroughbred, first, Susanne Tarlin; second, Susan and Linda Shapiro; third, Judy Wolper. American bred, first, Sheila McIntyre; second, Kathy Hogan; third, Debra Rothstein.

Pet Show: Most unusual, Jeff Muther; most original, Sheila McIntyre; cutest, Nancy Malloy; prettiest, Jennifer Tarlin.

Boys' race for 6 and under: first, Kenny Leach; second, Billy Fenton; third, Alan Kirschbaum. Second race: first, John Florescu; second, Edward Foreman; third, Kevin O'Malley.

Political Highlights

ever, is that the Democrats are in complete control of the State government and that a great many of them stand to suffer if they make a poor record this year and next.

That is true from Governor Furcolo all the way down the line to State Senators, Representatives and Executive Councilors from marginal districts which shift with the political tides.

The sales tax bill, of course, is the real basis of the disagreement between the Governor and Senate President John E. Powers, the two dominant Democratic figures on Beacon Hill.

Furcolo strongly favors the sales tax as a means of balancing the state budget and providing new revenue to ease the tax burden on real estate owners in the cities and towns.

Powers just as strenuously opposes the sales tax or, for that matter, any new tax.

A majority of the Senators, following Powers' leadership, apparently are prepared to slash whatever amount is necessary out of the budget in order to place it theoretically in balance, thereby eliminating the need for the sales tax as far as the state is concerned.

The reason for the delay by the Senate Ways and Means Committee in acting on the budget is that it is trying to determine just how much must be chopped out to achieve that objective and where the cuts can be made so they will do the least damage.

While the sales tax is at the root of the friction between the Governor and certain of the legislative leaders in his own party, it is not the only cause of the situation which has developed on Beacon Hill.

Poor liaison between the Governor's office and the Legislature apparently is responsible for part of the trouble.

Certain of the statements by Furcolo himself also have served to antagonize some Democratic legislators and have worsened the situation instead of helping it.

Governor Furcolo understandably has become increasingly impatient at the failure of the Legislature to act more speedily on the major measures pending before it and, more precisely, to pass the bills which he seeks to have enacted into law.

What Furcolo obviously desires is that the Legislature adopt the budget he submitted, with the minor reductions made by the House, and then approve the sales tax.

And he has rolled up his sleeves and begun issuing forceful statements in an endeavor to prod the Legislature into doing just that.

The friction between the Governor and the Senate was brought out into the open shortly after the budget was approved by the House and sent to the Senate, when Governor Furcolo issued a poorly timed ultimatum that he would not sign an unbalanced budget.

There was little point to issuing the statement as that particular time unless the Governor intended to have the sales tax bill sent to the floor of the House for a showdown in that body.

The only way the Senate can send Furcolo a balanced budget is either by reducing it or by enacting a new tax to provide additional revenue, and the only proposal for a new source of revenue pending before the Legislature is the sales tax bill.

That measure is being held by the House Ways and Means Committee, a majority of whose members will report it favorably but have been waiting for the strategic time to put the bill to its critical test.

Thus, when leaders in the State Senate chose to construe Governor Furcolo's demand for a balanced budget as an invitation for them to cut his budget, they could make a fairly convincing case to show that the only way they could comply with his ultimatum was to slash contemplated expenditures.

Meanwhile, most citizens are watching the complete absence of Democratic harmony on Beacon Hill and wondering what, if anything, the Democrats will have to show in the way of accomplishments for this legislative session other than the withholding tax law which was enacted last winter.

A-Bomb Ban Urged By 12 At Seminary

Twelve members of the faculty of Andover-Newton Theological Seminary, acting as individuals, have signed statements calling upon the U. S. government to renounce nuclear weapons, and biological and chemical weapons.

One statement was sent to Omaha Action, Nonviolence Against Nuclear Missile Policy at Omaha, Neb., and the second to Appeal At Fort Detrick, Philadelphia.

The statements were signed by John W. Brush, Vaughan Dabney, J. Leslie Dunstan, Wesner Fallaw, Nels F. S. Ferre, Wallace Forgey, Albert J. Gordon, Norman K. Gottwald, Edmund H. Linn, Gilbert G. Rutenber, John H. Scammon and Russell C. Tuck.

MTA Success

MTA officials incidentally, are not guaranteeing that the 25-cent fee will be maintained permanently. They intimate that it may be necessary later to increase it.

Spokesmen for the MTA are understandably jubilant over the rush of the general public to use the new Highland Branch facility.

It appears that practically all the persons who once utilized the commuter service provided by the Boston & Albany railroad are now taking advantage of the rapid transit service.

Hundreds of residents on the south side of Newton who formerly rode to and from downtown Boston by automobile also are trying out the new line.

There also is evidence that many persons living west of Newton are now driving to Riverside and either parking there or being dropped there by their wives.

Riverside appears to be the surest place for those desiring to park. Its spacious facilities have not yet been taxed to capacity.

On the other hand, a mid-morning check made by a Graphic reporter showed that no spaces were available at the Elliot and Newton Highlands stations.

One of the big surprises was the large number of persons who rode the Highland Branch Saturday and Sunday, apparently to enjoy the novelty.

Howard Goldberg and Bride Honeymooning in Europe

The marriage of Miss Sheila Arlene Levy to Mr. Howard Ritter Goldberg took place recently at the ballroom of the Hotel Taft in New Haven, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Levy of Southington, Conn., are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Newell B. Goldberg of 269 Waltham street, West Newton.

Pink and white roses made a pretty setting for the 5 o'clock nuptials, at which Rabbi Albert Troy of Temple B'nai Israel, Meriden, Conn., officiated. A reception took place immediately following the wedding.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned of white peau de soie. Her molded bodice had a portrait neckline appliqued with precious lace and short sleeves. Her bouffant skirt terminated in a chapel length train.

She chose a mantilla of Belgium lace, and for her "something old" she carried an heirloom prayer book used by her husband's family for the past two generations. Her flowers were white roses.

Mrs. Richard S. Cotton of Framingham was matron of honor. Mrs. Peter D. Eimas of Storrs, Conn., was bridesmaid. Mr. Philip Brockelman of Elizabeth Zottu Will Marry J. A. Lane, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zottu of Newton Centre have made known the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Zottu, to Mr. Joseph A. Lane, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Lane of West Roxbury.

Miss Zottu was graduated from the University of New Hampshire, class of 1957. She is now a medical technologist at the New England Baptist Hospital.

Mr. Lane is a graduate of the Tufts University School of Engineering, class of 1951. After serving as an officer in the Navy, he received his master's degree from Babson Institute, class of 1959.

The couple plan to wed in the fall.

Shrewsbury served as best man for Mr. Goldberg, whose ushers were Mr. Bernard Levy, Mr. Lawrence Levy, both of New Britain, Conn., and brothers of the bride, Mr. Bert Brown of New York City, Mr. Philip Hart of Cornwall, Conn., Mr. Anthony J. Barker of Goshen, Conn., Mr. Philip Wilkinson of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., Mr. David Peck of Wayne, Pa., and Mr. Robert Goff of Seattle, Wash.

The couple, now honeymooning in Europe, will be at home in Waltham after September 14th.

The bride was graduated from Simmons College. Mr. Goldberg is a graduate of Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N. H., and Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y.

Sudbury Chapel Is Scene Of Miller-Bennett Nuptials

The Martha Mary Chapel in Sudbury was the scene of the recent afternoon ceremony at which Miss Elaine Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walter Bennett of 44 Appleton road, Needham, became the bride of Mr. Robert Winthrop Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Miller of 161 Forest avenue, West Newton.

Officiating at the four o'clock, single ring service was the Rev. Ernest Bodenweber, and a reception followed at the Wayside Inn in Sudbury.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned with a bodice of imported organza which had a portrait neckline trimmed with re-embroidered cut-out leaves and delicate roses. A v-waist accented the full dome skirt which culminated in a court train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a matching crown, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white baby orchids, stephanotis and ivy. Mrs. George Cochrane 3rd, of Reading was the matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward Furber of Manchester, N.H., and Miss Virginia Jean Nicotera of Everett.

Serving as best man for his brother was Mr. Richard Leigh Miller of West Newton, and ushers included Mr. Edmund Gilmore Miller of West Newton, another brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Raymond W. Moore of Brookline.

Rawson Plays Labor Sponsored Jobless Boosts

Representative George E. Rawson of Newton declares the business climate of Massachusetts was dealt a "bitter blow" recently when the House of Representatives passed to be engrossed several bills demanded by leaders of organized labor.

The votes were consistently along party lines—the Democrats in favor, and Republicans against.

The net result is a large increase of weekly benefits to injured workers under the Workmen's Compensation Insurance law, increase of the amount paid for dependents under the law, an increase of the benefits under the Unemployment Compensation law, an increase for dependents and a lengthening of the duration of award payments.

"These additional fringe benefits," Rep. Rawson said, "will greatly add to the cost of doing business in Massachusetts."

"The result will be that Massachusetts business and industry will be placed on an added competitive disadvantage toward business in other states."

All four of Newton's representatives—Heaney, Rawson, Thresher and Whittemore voted against all of these bills.

House bill No. 721, which provided for unemployment compensation to strikers, was defeated by roll call, 85 to 143.

Cowboy Town Is Mecca For Western Fans

Local youngsters can enjoy the real, live adventure of the old west when cowboys reenact the Pony Express, hold up banks and duel in the streets in Cowboy Town just off Rte. 1 in Plainville, between Wrentham and North Attleboro.

It is open seven days a week from noon to dusk, and its streets are alive with activity. It has become the Old West for thousands of New England boy and girl TV cowboys. Many of them are permitted to draw guns against its "badmen" or defend the fort against marauding Indians.

The audience is always invited to join in the festivities. And the cowboys, instead of being hung, are usually thrown in the watering trough and then bundled off to the lockup.

Among the 60-odd people who keep Cowboy Town running are 18 cowpokes, one real Shawnee Indian and six of the prettiest cowgirls since Dale Evans.

Living with Your Heart

One of the greatest challenges of modern medicine is to find a way to diagnose arteriosclerosis—before it brings on heart attack. Without doubt such a discovery would save as many lives as any other which medical science could achieve.

This is because much of what we call "heart disease" is artery disease for a long time before it strikes at the heart itself.

Think of your heart as a city, and your arteries as miles upon miles of tunnels leading there—tunnels which carry your city's food supply inside their walls.

Arteriosclerosis is a virtual form of hardening of the arteries, a development common to advancing age but by no means confined to the elderly. The walls of these vital tunnels are not only hardened but roughened and thickened when arteriosclerosis occurs.

Scarlike tissue forms on the inner walls of the arteries as they roughen and narrow. Eventually, the opening clogs or a blood clot blocks it—and the supply of oxygen-carrying blood to a portion of the heart is suddenly cut off.

Although the heart serves as the pump which keeps blood circulating through the body, the blood which passes through its four chambers doesn't feed it. Your heart is a tremendously hard-working muscle, and it demands its own supply of rich fresh blood, coursing through a network of arteries going through the heart to nourish it.

When a major "tunnel" leading to the city of your heart is blocked, that part of your heart instantly begins starving. Heart attack follows.

Often, arteriosclerosis has no clinical effect simply because the traffic isn't completely jammed. In other cases, arteries have been closed and their owners, whose collateral circulation is well developed, never knew it; they may die years later of some other disease.

The role of cholesterol, a fatty substance in the blood, is under intensive investigation by the Massachusetts and American Heart Association. In the laboratory, animals whose blood has a high-cholesterol content have had heart attacks. For a time, prevailing medical opinion was that cholesterol was the major villain in the blood clot problem. This idea has not been discarded, but keen interest is being shown in the possibility that the body's inability to break down the blood into an easy-flowing liquid may have as much to do with heart attacks.

At present, the presence of arteriosclerosis can be diagnosed only through heart attack itself, angina pectoris—a manifestation of inadequate blood supply to the heart—or, sometimes, by electrocardiogram.

Heart disease, often induced by arteriosclerosis, accounts markedly for deaths between the ages of 45 and 64 years in men, and in women from the 50's on.

But increasingly, it is striking at men in the 30's, and they are more vulnerable when heart attack does occur, probably because they have not lived long enough for their bodies to set up adequate collateral circulation to feed the heart in the presence of a clot.

There is much that medical science can do for heart attack victims—after the fact. But a reliable early test for arteriosclerosis would make preventive medical history which would be remembered gratefully through the ages.

For more information on arteriosclerosis, send a postcard to Heart Headquarters, 650 Beacon Street, Boston.

Tax Department Rules on Summer Work

If Junior works at a summer job during the school vacation, his parents still may claim him as a dependent when they file their Federal income tax return next year even though he earns more than $600.

That's the word from no less authority than Frank J. Cavanagh, district director of Internal Revenue for the Boston district, and should be most assuring to parents, many of whom are of the opinion that a child is limited to earnings of under $600.

This special rule, explained the director, applies to children who still will be under 19 years of age at the end of the year and to children who are full time students regardless of age.

Parents who contribute more than half the support of a child in one of these categories may claim a dependency exemption regardless of the amount earned by the child.

The director also added a good word for the working child. They are entitled to a $600 personal exemption and maybe to a refund of part or all Federal income taxes withheld from their wages. However, it will be necessary that they file their own return after January 1, 1960, to claim refund of any amount withheld in excess of their actual tax liability.

Parents operating their own business receive further consideration under a recent IRS ruling. Under this ruling, reasonable wages paid dependent children as bona fide employees in such business are deductible. This explained Mr. Cavanagh, modifies a previous ruling which allowed no deduction if the children used the wages paid them by their parents for part of their own support.

Save Money, No 4th Display In Upper Falls

The rocket red-glare loss is the gain of athletic teams in Newton Upper Falls.

There was no Fourth of July display there, because the fireworks company was unable to fulfill its contract, and Upper Falls was in the same category as a score of other communities.

Other areas without displays included Salisbury, Sudbury, Attleboro, East Boston and Jamaica Pond.

George Braceland, treasurer of the Newton Upper Falls committee, said no money was paid for the fireworks which failed to arrive. He said the funds will go toward the athletic teams.

Teachers Take European Trip

Miss Marion C. Wheeler, a teacher at Warren Jr. High School, West Newton, and Miss Ruth M. Twiss, a teacher at Newton High School, Newtonville, both of West Newton, left New York by plane over the week-end on an educational tour of Europe.

Teachers from various parts of the country are in the party of 30 making the tour, which is sponsored by the National Education Association. They flew to Bergen, Norway, on the first leg of their journey.

At several of the cities to be visited the teachers will have an opportunity to visit schools and compare notes with European teachers.

After Norway they will visit Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, France, England, and Scotland. They will return to New York, by air, Aug. 18.

She is the first woman to be elected to the Board of Aldermen, having served two terms as ward alderman from Ward 1, from 1954 to 1956 and from '56 to '58.

In announcing her candidacy, she points to her activities in many civic and welfare organizations.

Voting Machine Demonstration For City Heads

A competitive demonstration to determine which of two types of voting machines will be used by Newton at one polling place as an experiment in next fall's municipal election, will be held at City Hall tonight before Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., and the Aldermanic Ward Lines and Election Committee.

Competing for the right to rent the city eight voting machines will be the Automatic Voting Machine Corporation of Jamestown, N.Y., and the Shoup Company of Philadelphia.

Former State Senator Philip G. Bowker of Brookline, New England manager of the Automatic Voting Machine Corp., will supervise a demonstration of that company's machines.

TELE- VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

Today, everything seems to be getting bigger and bigger. People are growing taller, automobiles are becoming longer and lower, and TV screens are a far cry from the tiny ones that we watched a few years ago. So it's pretty annoying when you discover your large TV screen slowly starting to shrink. A black line will appear at the top and bottom, on the sides perhaps. This line is the screen itself, with the picture not filling it! Often, you can correct this problem yourself by adjusting the controls on your set... sometimes located in the front, sometimes in the back... which govern the height and width size of your picture. You can take a screwdriver and make minor adjustments. The set manufacturer placed these controls in an easily accessible place so that you may utilize them.

However, the controls on the back of your set... the covering on your set hides them... should be left alone. Only a fully qualified TV technician should touch them. So adjust only the controls which were placed there for your usage. You may have to change the linearity controls at the same time to keep picture proportions right. And if these adjustments don't do the trick, call us. Our experienced technicians will quickly discover whether the shrunken picture has resulted from failure of a power tube or some other difficulty.

But in particular, call us NOW for FEDDERS room-air-conditioners—sales and service. Phone BE 4-7240 for a free survey of your cooling requirements.

NEA Elects Batchelder As President

Richard Batchelder, of Newton High School, was elected President of the Classroom Teachers Department of the National Educational Association last week at the NEA convention in St. Louis.

Also attending as state and local delegates were Eric Dennard, superintendent of schools; Harold (Bud) Hawkes, past-president of the Newton Teachers Association and campaign manager for "Batch"; Miss Fro Georgas, vice president of the NTA; and Miss Natalie Mayo, classroom teacher at the Mason School.

Miss Ruth Stout, President of the NEA, said "we must remind ourselves and the public that our future goes to school today" and "an educated people moves freedom forward."

Being confronted with so many worldwide changes it is natural that our educational system would be challenged," she said. "Educators must continue to recognize the importance of high quality in standards of selection, preparation, and performance of teachers. "It is reassuring to know that the NEA, which is the representative body of the largest profession in the world, is very much aware of the challenges and has as its theme 'quality teaching opens windows on the world.'"

Big Hailstones Pelt Girl Scout Campers in Colorado

By MARGARET McLEAN

After much excitement and anticipation, and the first night attempting to sleep in a train coach, we reached Chicago and finally our Girl Scout campsite in Colorado.

Here is a peek at our Log: (July 1)

We arrived in Chicago and with glorious excitement headed for the tourist buses. Our first stop was at the museum of Natural History. We saw famed Soldiers Field, next Lincoln Park Zoo. Then we headed back to the station for lunch.

After a fill of hamburgers, potato chips, apples and ice cream we boarded the buses again and this time headed for the Museum of Science and Industry which was just fantastic. We were told it would take a person 33 days and nights to see everything in it. It is almost impossible to believe there is such a place. It has everything from the birth of man to the development of the latest atomic equipment. But it all ended too soon and we were on our way to Colorado again.

(July 2)

We finally reached our destination. There was a band greeting us at the station. From there we boarded buses which took us to the site of the Roundup. Every girl was wide-eyed and open mouthed at the beauty before us. It's like a dream in a world of fantasy. It is so wide-open and roomy compared to New England, and all around this airy place are the beautiful Rockies and Pike's Peak. Our campsite, we think, is the best in the whole area. It is on top of a big hill. Behind us are the Rockies. Our camping neighbors are from Buffalo, New York, Texas, and Ohio. Our troop leader is from

$95,000 Transfer Voted

Municipal Insurance $2,000 Plan Approved

The Newton Board of Aldermen voted Monday night to transfer $95,000 from the Budget Reserve to the Employees' Group Insurance account.

This will cover the total premiums to be paid by the city for the $2,000 contributory group life, accident, hospitalization, medical and surgical insurance for the 2,285 city employees and their dependents.

Chairman Earle D. Wood of the Finance Committee said Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr., selected the company which offered the insurance at the lowest cost.

The action was one of several taken by the board on monetary matters. In another action, the Aldermen approved acceptance and reconstruction of a portion of Allen avenue, Waban, at a cost of $48,835.

However, by a vote of 18 to 3, the Board denied an appropriation of $10,300 for the reconstruction of Charlesbank terrace, Newton.

The proposed expenditure of $22,500 for reconstruction of White avenue, Newton Centre, was referred back to the Finance and Public Works committee for further study, after the Board voted to reconsider its earlier denial.

Fake Newton M.D. Fined

A fine of $1,000 and two one-year suspended terms in the House of Correction were imposed in Boston Municipal Court Tuesday upon Benjamin Goldstein, of 132 Algonquin road, Chestnut Hill.

Goldstein, father of five, pleaded guilty to a charge of posing as a doctor, and with having medical supplies in his possession.

MTA Keeps Highlands Commuters

The MTA collected some 150,000 fares during the first week of operation of the new Highland Branch, and there appeared to be no appreciable change this week.

The situation was under scrutiny because there was no parking fee the first week. On Monday a 25-cent all-day fee went into effect at the 2000-car space lot in Riverside, and the 500-car lot at Woodland.

An MTA spokesman said there appeared to be a five per cent drop in the number of parked cars, but no appreciable change in the number of riders.

However, it was pointed out this is the vacation season, and there is no way of telling at this time where the permanent figure will be stabilized. The same 25 cents fee will

Bitter Budget Fight Looms On Beacon Hill Next Week

By JAMES G. COLBERT

All the signs indicate that next week will start a period of strife and turmoil on Beacon Hill.

A bitter controversy is certain to develop when the Democratic-controlled State Senate slashes Governor Furcolo's budget down to the point where no additional taxes are needed to balance it.

That will touch off a series of conflicts.

Find Body of Newton Woman In Norway Fire

The ruins of the fire-gutted Stalheim Hotel at Bergen, Norway, have yielded the body of Mrs. J. Arthur Snyder, 69, who lived at 107 Hobard road, Newton Centre, from 1927 to 1952.

Her sister, Mrs. William L. Collins lives at 931 Washington street, Newtonville.

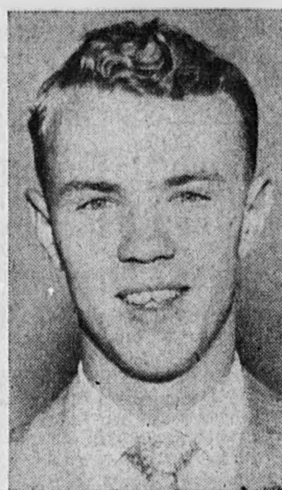

Notification of the discovery was made to relatives here and in Elm Grove, Wis., by the State Department through the American Embassy in Oslo. Many other Americans perished in the tragedy.

Mr. Snyder died suddenly May 22 in Elm Grove. His wife died in the hotel tragedy on June 23. Ashes of both will be buried in the family lot at Newton Cemetery.

Kill All-Night Parking Change

The Newton Board of Aldermen, by a vote of 15 to 3, killed an attempt to permit all-night parking on city streets.

Alderman Joseph G. Bradley said Monday night the modification would add residents in thickly settled sections, especially Wards 1 and 7.

However, police were reported opposed to the change. They contend the ban aids in spotting suspicious autos.

Lawrence Yeo, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Yeo, of 11 Brae Burn road, Auburndale, flew to Amsterdam, Holland; Barry N. Wish, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wish, of 21 Westchester road, Newton, will visit Cheshire, England; and Neil W. Driscoll, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Driscoll, of 176 Langley road, Newton Centre, is in Brussels, Belgium.

The Newton boys were selected by the Boys' Club of Boston International Boy Ambassador Committee on the basis of their indication of real leadership qualities, their ability to get along with people, and the fact that they are in the highest group scholastically, as well as of sound health and finest character.

Each of the boys will spend from two to four weeks in homes of representative families in the country visited. The remainder of the time will be spent in a boys' camp or as a participant of a similar type of program in that country.

The three boys are all graduates of Newton High School; they will continue their studies in September at the following schools: Yeo will matriculate at Wesleyan, Wish at Bowdoin and Driscoll at Babson.

Upon the conclusion of their overseas visits, the boys will meet on August

Bolt Hits Newton Home Loss $7500

Damage estimated at $7,500 was caused last week when a lightning bolt struck and started a fire at the home of Benjamin J. Cohen at 66 Roosevelt road, Newton.

The bolt struck the roof of the one-story dwelling near the TV antenna and followed it into a den, where most of the damage was caused.

Mrs. Cohen, and her seven-year-old daughter, were uninjured and fled the building unaided.

Four Spots Now Picked For Tryouts

Voters Will See Display At City Hall

Voting machines will be used in four Newton polling places in next fall's municipal election.

Originally it was intended to try the machines as an experiment in one precinct.

However, the plan has been expanded to include four polling places.

This was disclosed Monday night when the Board of Aldermen appropriated an additional $780 for the voting machines.

Added to $720 allowed in the city budget for the same purpose, that made a total of $1500 which will be used to hire 18 machines.

Two companies, whose products are to be used, are co-operating with the city by renting their machines at half the usual price.

The four polling places where voting machines will be used next November instead of the customary paper ballots are:

Ward 2, Precinct 2, the high school drill shed on Elm road in Newtonville.

Ward 5, Precinct 2, the Hyde School at 68 Lincoln street in Newton Highlands.

Ward 8, Precinct 1, the Meadowbrook Junior High School at 125 Meadowbrook road in Oak Hill.

Four voting machines will be installed at each of the two locations.

New Apartments Oak Hill to Weigh Plans For Project

Jack M. Roberts, president of the Oak Hill Improvement Association, announced this week that plans are underway for an open meeting to provide residents of the area with an opportunity to express their views on the proposed $15,000,000 apartment house development planned for the former Shaw estate.

Members of the executive committee of the Improvement Association already have studied sketches of the new development which calls for 18-to-21-story apartment buildings.

President Roberts points out that the impact of such a project on an area of homes could be sizeable. He said that his association will study the proposal with consideration for the best interests of the Oak Hill district and the City of Newton.

He also stated that no formal recommendation would be forwarded to the Board of Aldermen from the association until after the open meeting.

Rawson Plays DPU for RR Abandonment

The Department of Public Utilities was criticized by Representative George E. Rawson of Newton for permitting the railroad to abandon service at the Newton station.

"The DPU could have kept commuting service at the Newton Station," Rawson said this week.

"They could have ordered continuation of the two morning inbound stops and the three evening outbound stops at the rush hours five days a week. Such a decision certainly interested. It would have won public approval and support."

Rawson said the denial by

B&A Seeks Final Decree Closing Newton Station

The Boston & Albany Railroad announced this week it would seek a Superior Court final decree on Wednesday to permit closing of the Newton Corner station.

Pending outcome of the plea for the decree, the station is being kept open on a temporary court order obtained by the Newton Corner Association.

However, the full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court last week turned down a petition filed by Newton City Solicitor Matt B. Jones and the Newton Corner Improvement Association.

This petition asked that the Newton Corner Station be kept open and that 10 trains daily be maintained on the B & A's main line through Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale and Riverside.

The High Court's opinion also supported the decision of the Department of Public Utilities. This allowed the railroad to discontinue the trains, and to discontinue four stops which are within the area served by the MTA.

Local Teacher Honored at Illinois Newton Man Installed As New President Of National Group

Richard D. Batchelder, energetic young Newton High School social studies teacher, has been installed as the new president of the Department of Classroom Teachers, at the 16th national conference of the National Education Association at Normal, Illinois.

The young local teacher highlighted his installation exercises by announcing that what teachers in this country need most today is "time to teach."

Batchelder, 34-years old and affectionately known to his colleagues as "Batch," took over the leadership of one of the largest and most powerful departments of the Association.

The conference will continue through tomorrow, July 17 on the campus of Illinois State Normal University. He succeeds Ewald Turner, of Pendleton, Ore.

"Teachers trained to teach want to do just that," Batchelder said. "But they are too bogged down with various non-professional chores to do."

Boy Struck by Ice Cream Truck

The condition of three-year-old Edward T. McGrath of 62 Cherry place, West Newton, who was struck Saturday afternoon by an ice cream vending machine, remains critical today at Newton Wellfleet Hospital.

The boy's name was placed on the danger list after he was brought to the hospital in a police ambulance by Patrolmen T. Manley Kiley and Martin W. Daley.

Police were told by the truck driver that he started his vehicle after making several sales near 57 Cherry place. He heard a thump, stopped at once, and found the boy lying near the rear wheel, he said.

Touch Of Orient Brought Here by Chinese Orphan

There's a touch of the Orient at 20 Cambria Rd., in West Newton, where a little moon-faced Chinese orphan from Hong Kong has stolen the hearts of her foster parents and new sister.

Black-haired Debra has been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brissette, who have one daughter of their own, Karen, 8, a pupil at Franklin School.

The 4½-year-old orphan was one of 60 Chinese tots who arrived last week at New York's Idlewild Airport, and it was there she met her new foster parents for the first time.

Although she spoke not a word of English, her vocabulary is increasing steadily. At first she caught onto the words "lollipop" and "bye bye."

Mr. and Mrs. Brissette applied for the child through the WAIF, a division of the International Society Service in conjunction with Church World Service. They tried to adopt a child in this country, but without success.

the Supreme Judicial Court of the appeal from the DPU order "is dismal news indeed."

"The daily commuter using the station will be left without adequate service to and from Boston. Those who cannot put up with the unreliable and unsatisfactory service provided from Newton Corner by the MTA will be forced to take to the highways which are overcrowded already — adding to the present traffic hazards.

"There are not adequate parking facilities in Boston to take care of them when they reach the city."

"It is not proper to blame the Supreme Judicial Court. In my opinion, the only question before that body was whether the DPU had legal power to issue such an order. The court had to find they possessed such power. The agency to be held responsible is the DPU."

Early Services On Trial Basis

Two laymen will lead an early morning worship service in the sanctuary of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church during July.

The service will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will not conflict with the Union Services in West Newton, which begin at 10 a.m. For several years requests have been made for such a service, and the Deacons voted to give it a trial. If successful, it may be continued through August.

Use Machines

Corporation of Jamestown, N. Y., and the Shoup Company of Philadelphia — both are seeking to install their machines in Newton, municipal officials have decided to rent eight machines from each concern.

Present indications are that the Automatic machines will be used in two polling places and the Shoup machines in two precincts.

The success or failure of the experiment at the four polling locations probably will determine whether voting in Newton will be entirely mechanized in the near future.

Newton, progressive in almost all other things, has been slow in adopting the modern method of voting on machines rather than by paper ballots. The result has been that the tabulation of the city's vote in major elections has been long and slow, and election officers, fatigued after long hours on the job, have come in for criticism for not adhering to the strict letter of the law.

It is estimated that it would cost in the vicinity of $150,000 to purchase voting machines for all the city's polling places.

However, an annual saving would be made possible in the annual conduct of the elections.

City Clerk Monte G. Basbas announced today that later in the month two voting machines — one Automatic and one Shoup — will be set up in the cafeteria in the basement of City Hall for demonstration purposes.

Basbas declared that all voters residing in the four precincts where machines are to be used should make it a point to visit City Hall and learn how to operate the machines.

He emphasized that all Newton residents are invited to inspect the machines and receive instruction on how to use them but that it is very important that residents of the four precincts, where the machines are to be used, do so.

Since the city will revert to its division of eight wards for the coming municipal election, the approximately 47,000 registered voters in Newton all will be sent cards telling them the location at which they will cast their ballots this year.

Political Highlights

The big questions are how the Senate will make the cuts and whether the House subsequently will concur in them.

Whatever reductions are made in the budget are virtually certain to draw an outburst of protests.

Senate Ways and Means Committee Chairman William D. Fleming has declared several times that the budget would be balanced but that someone would be hurt in the process of doing it.

The screams of anguish from those who are hurt are likely to be loud and long. What isn't known yet is just who will be hurt by the budget-trimming.

Beacon Hill observers are now convinced that if the Senate slashes $10-$12 million, or whatever amount is necessary, from the budget to place it in balance without new revenue, the House will not concur in the action.

That opinion is based on the fact that a majority of the House members, having passed the budget which has been before the Senate for the past several weeks, would be tacitly admitting that they acted improperly in doing so if they now were to agree to meat-axe slashes.

If the House refuses to accept the budget as trimmed down by the Senate, it would then go to a conference committee composed of members of each body, and a long impasse could occur. That is what many experienced Beacon Hill observers believe will happen.

How the budget battle eventually will end is uncertain, but one thing which is sure is that before it ends it will do substantial harm to the Democratic party and to Democratic prospects for next year.

Governor Furcolo the other day warned Democratic Senators, who are intent upon cutting the budget, that they are walking into a Republican trap.

Furcolo may have been exaggerating the situation slightly, but there is a good deal of basic truth and fact for what he said.

GOP strategists are hoping that the Democratic politicians will be so anxious to avoid the enactment of a sales tax that they will set the stage for a financial crisis in 1960—an election year. And the truth is that the Democrats appear to be on the verge of doing exactly that.

Even though the Legislature eventually passes a balanced budget, which has been trimmed to the point where no additional taxes are needed, everybody at the State House knows that early next year, probably in January or February, Governor Furcolo will be forced to submit a supplementary budget, as every Governor in memory before him has done.

But no one at the State House can tell you where the money will come from to finance the supplementary budget which will be enacted.

The issue that is splitting the Democratic party on Beacon Hill is the sales tax. And the two dominant figures in the sales tax conflict are Governor Furcolo on one side and Senate President John E. Powers on the other.

Powers hasn't stumped the state in opposition to the sales tax, as he did two years ago. He hasn't publicly criticized Governor Furcolo as Lieutenant Governor Murphy has done. But he is unalterably opposed to the sales tax, even though it would help him if he is elected the next Mayor of Boston.

A dynamic, forceful individual, Powers commands tremendous influence in the body over which he presides, probably more even than the Governor, although that will be determined when certain issues are voted upon.

Powers helped many of the Democratic Senators to gain election. He has guided, advised and aided them in the Senate, and they look to him for leadership. It also is anticipated that Powers, if he wins election as Boston's next Mayor, can virtually name his successor as the next president of the Senate if he chooses to do so.

To some degree Powers is gambling his own political future on the belief that a majority of the people of Boston—and for that matter of Massachusetts as well—don't want a sales tax.

Political experts, who question Powers' judgment, point out that Governor Furcolo was re-elected by a bigger plurality after sponsoring a sales tax bill and that no legislator who voted for the sales tax in 1957 was defeated as a result of doing so.

If a poll were taken in either Boston or the state as a whole, however, it unquestionably would show that a majority of the people are opposed to a sales tax.

They may accept it without too much complaint when they get it. They may even recognize its advantages after it becomes law. But when any new tax is proposed, most people are automatically against it.

That is why Governor Furcolo's budget will be slashed drastically in the Senate next week. If the truth were known, a majority of the Senators don't want to cut the Governor's budget. But they would rather do that than pass a sales tax even though it would ease the tax rate problem in every city and town in the Commonwealth.

Meanwhile, the Republicans are sitting back enjoying the situation and hoping that the Democrats will wind up by hitting each other over the head with blunt instruments.

They are quick to point out that this is the first State government which is completely under Democratic control and that total responsibility for what happens at the State House this year and next rests on Democratic shoulders.

It is no secret, of course, that GOP leaders privately and even openly are hoping that their party will benefit from the Democratic split. They would not be at all disappointed or chagrined if Governor Furcolo and his fellow Democrats were confronted with a financial crisis next year when the shadow of the 1960 election will be looming large and dark.

Divine Source Of Life To Be Stressed Sunday

The divine, eternal source of all life and action will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon on "Life" is the Golden Text from John (5:26): "As the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (289:32): "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase."

Scriptural selections include this passage from I John (2:25): "And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life."

Colored Hair Is Rage For European Mi'Lady

Color, color and more color—and reds are most popular—is the vogue in women's hair styling in Europe today.

And hair coloring for men is quite common, too. So says Anthony Davis, well-known hair stylist of West Newton Sq., who returned recently from a nine-weeks visit to Europe.

While abroad he spent some time in Rome, Paris and London studying new hair dressing styles and techniques.

"The current European style," Davis reports, "is medium short hair, cut into strands from 1½ to 3 inches, and dressed rather informally with a very soft broken wave effect that is always showing some part of the ear."

"But color is the thing, color, color and more color! All shades of red are most popular."

"If it isn't red then it is streaks of blond, big streaks, little streaks, fat streaks, thin streaks. It is indeed a rare sight to see hair without some additional color."

"It is interesting to note," Davis continued, "that the best dressed heads were seen in Holland and Belgium. It is remarkable to see the amount of new hair styling being done in Europe nowadays.

Young Local Skipper Wins Hull Regatta

A summer resident of Hull, Frank Lewenberg, young Newton junior high student, has won his second straight Hull Invitational Turnabout Regatta.

He bested 13 other skippers from 11 clubs competing for the prizes.

Lewenberg won three races and finished third in two others, for a total of 66½ points. In second place was Bob Walsh Jr. of Town River Yacht Club with 62½ points.

"As I figure it," Lewenberg explained, "there were two things I had to watch for. In the first place I had to be careful to absorb as much of the local water knowledge as I could remember."

"Then I had to realize how potent my opposition was and not let them get by me."

This year's students are Edith Cohen of 259 Homer St., Newton Centre; Thomas Kennedy Jr., of 14 Hundreds Circle, Wellesley Hills, and John Lyons of 10 Oakmont Rd., Newton Centre.

The Institute is under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee. It will provide the opportunity for high school young people to meet and discuss world problems centered in the theme "Peace is an Idea Whose Time Has Come."

Various countries, races and faiths will be represented among the 50 to 60 participating students.

The trio will report back to the WILPF at a fall meeting. Mrs. Hollis J. Wyman, is the Auburn St., Auburndale, is the International Chairman for the Branch.

Edith Cohen is a senior at Newton High School. She has been one of the editors of the Newtonite, secretary of the International Club, and on the American Field Service Committee for student exchanges.

Thomas Kennedy, a senior at the Cambridge School in Weston, has written and published some music and is especially interested in folk songs. He is member of the American Youth Hosts, and has taken part in a Friends Service Committee work project.

Three Newton Cadets Win Norwich Honors

Three Norwich University cadets from West Newton and Newton Highlands have won academic military honors at the military college, it was announced today.

They are Reinhard M. Lotz of 502 Crafts street, West Newton and Carl P. Vermilyea of 102 Erie avenue, Newton Highlands, both seniors, and Benjamin O. Chase Jr., of 33 Harrison street, Newton Highlands, a sophomore.

Lotz won a place on the Dean's List for scholastic standing in the second semester of his junior year—an honor achieved by less than one-fifth of the enrolled students.

All three have been promoted for the next academic year in the regimental organization of the Corps of Cadets. Lotz was appointed a Major, Vermilyea a Captain, and Chase a Corporal.

In the cadet military organization commissioned officers are chosen from among the seniors, sergeants are juniors, and corporals are sophomores. The cadet officers and non-commissioned officers of the self-governed Corps are chosen on the basis of their leadership, academic and military standing, and their contributions to the success of the Corps extra-curricular program.

Lotz and Vermilyea are business administration majors, and Chase is majoring in liberal arts.

Iowa and her assistant is from West Bombay, India. Every one is so warm and friendly.

We spent our day meeting our new neighbors and setting up our new home.

(July 3)

At 4:30 in the morning we saw the sun peek over the top of the Rockies. What a glorious Western sunrise! After having consumed a big breakfast, we finished the process known as "settling in".

We then got together with the Texan campers in our troop and had a try at learning how to use a bull-whip.

This evening we gathered together, 9,000 strong, in the little arena for the formal opening of the Senior Girl Scout Roundup. We saluted for the last time, the 48-star flag.

Inspiring talks were given by the president of the Girl Scouts of America, an Air Force Major, and the director of the roundup.

The evening was climaxed by presentation of our new flag, and by the presentation of a symbolic star to the president of the Girl Scouts by the Hawaiian Girl Scouts.

(July 4)

Today we experienced one of the most exciting Fourth of July celebrations of our lives. Early in the morning, 9,000 campers filed into the small arena. A thrilling and awe-inspiring event quickly photographed by TV cameramen then occurred. The large United States flag, fresh and new with its 49 stars was raised above the heads of the viewers. Seconds afterward, the state flags and those belonging to the World Association of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides were raised together by hundreds of strong sun-burned hands.

At noontime we had barely finished our traditional Fourth of July dinner of barbecued chicken when a strong wind arose. It was accompanied by 40-mile an hour winds and hailstones as large as mothballs. Thunder and lightning roared and flashed over the Rockies as we huddled together in our kitchen tent, hoping it wouldn't fall!

When evening came the world was fresh and beautiful again. The sun slipped down behind the Rockies, and that evening, some tired Scouts gratefully huddled in down-filled sleeping bags under damp tents.

(July 5)

Today our section, Camp Five, marched to the avenue of flags. The raising and lowering of these flags occurs daily as a sign of respect to other nations. As we looked up at these flags, I think we all realized that respect of other countries and cultures will be a big step to the promotion of world peace.

The sun shone brilliantly on the 100th anniversary of the State of Colorado. After an early dinner, Troop 7 assembled and along with our section 5, walked to a large arena for the Centennial Celebration.

The thousands of girls marching into the arena made an impressive sight. At the Avenue of Flags a platoon of

(July 7)

Another day begins bright and early at 7 a.m. The girls attended various events taking place all over the camp. In the evening as we were cooking dinner, someone noticed a cloud of red dust in the direction of the Rockies.

Fires were doused and tents quickly tied down. However, the wind proved too strong. A ridgepole and an upright cracked ominously in the 40 mile winds, and the girls quickly took the tents down. One was ripped badly.

(July 8)

Senior Scouts stood ready to retire the colors.

Ten thousand people stood at attention as a bugle announced the retiring of the flags. Then a most able Scout song leader directed thousands of voices in songs familiar to every scout. Back and forth over the hills, the refrains echoed and reechoed.

The Scouts were honored by the presence of Mrs. Charles Culmer, President of the United States Girl Scouts. She brought greetings from President Eisenhower, and also commended the citizens of Colorado for the beauty of the Centennial Program.

So ended a most memorable pageant—a day which helped to revive in the minds of viewers the heritage which is ours. The tradition of the Indian has deep roots; the songs of the cowboy, sung during long cattle drives, expresses his love for the land.

So we have discovered during these days the true beauty of the West.

New Fight On Med. Bldg. In Auburndale

The Planning Board and the Aldermanic Claims and Rules Committee have scheduled joint public hearings on Monday, July 20, at 7:45 p.m., at Newton City Hall on a new fight by Auburndale residents against a proposed medical building.

William D. Lane and associates seek a change in zone for about 3½ acres near the new Woodland Station of the MTA Highland Branch extension from Residence "A" to Residence "E".

The change requested by the Lane group would permit construction of multiple apartment buildings as well as the medical building.

Residents of the area who oppose the change in zoning contend the proposed development would interfere with reported plans by the MTA to expand parking facilities.

Police are keeping a close watch on the parking in Newton streets near the various MTA stops. They feel sure there will be more cars parked on the streets now that parking fees at the MTA lots are in effect.

Chief Phillip Purcell toured the various stops with Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr. He said he would recommend ordinances for limited parking wherever the need arises.

Former Newton Boy Sees Life Inside Atomic Sub

Thomas R. King, Jr., former Newtonville resident and Newton High School graduate, celebrated his 23rd birthday yesterday. He switched his mortar board and gown and his sheepskin, received at Commencement exercises at Northeastern University last month, for the uniform and accessories of the U. S. Army.

Now residing at 32 St. Paul street, Brookline, King has enjoyed the enviable experience of cruising in an atomic submarine, the Seawolf, and of being closely associated with atomic underwater research as a Northeastern University Co-operative Plan student at the Electric Boat Company, Groton, Conn., assigned to the U. S. Navy.

The former Newtonite spent a year and a half at the Connecticut plant as part of a team of 75 officers and civil employees working under the Supervisor of Ships and Inspector of Naval Ordnance. Their responsibility was to check everything constructed under Navy contracts.

King's particular job was that of a radio trouble-shooter. He checked the antennas used on the atomic undersea-craft. He worked on the Navy atomic subs Nautilus and Skate when they were docked for repairs.

To other atomic submarines, Skipjack and Triton were being built at the Connecticut yards and King was employed in his testing capacity on each boat.

He was checking gear in the radio room of the Seawolf when he took his cruise underwater to the mouth of the harbor, a thrilling experience for the young student.

He had the opportunity for an underwater study of life aboard one of Uncle Sam's atomic submarines and even ate with the crew.

THOMAS R. KING, JR.

The extra civilians aboard the craft developed a situation of somewhat cramped quarters but everybody took the annoyances in good part. The food was excellent and reminiscent of the finest restaurants, King declared.

"Working underwater was nice," said the young man, "but I'd prefer to be a few miles higher, at least on solid land."

Therefore, he entered the Army to carry out his military debt to the nation after attaining the honor of Distinguished Military Graduate at Northeastern. He is taking a three-year flight program with the Army.

Under the "co-op" plan, which assigned King to the Navy and the Connecticut atomic submarine base, upperclass students alternate ten-week periods in the University with periods of equal length on regular paying jobs in business and industry.

King was born in Newton-ville, and resided there with his family at 28 Bullough Park. He is a graduate of the Claflin and Frank A. Day Schools and of Newton High School. He graduated from Northeastern University this year where he was an electrical engineer major.

Garden Reception Followed Thyng-Oncley Wedding

MRS. DAVID E. THYNG
(Loring Studio)

A garden reception at the home of Professor and Mrs. John Lawrence Oncley of Newtonville followed the recent marriage of their daughter, Miss Nancy Anne Oncley, to Mr. David Edgar Thyng, son of Mrs. Clarence Edgar Thyng of Newtonville and the late Mr. Thyng.

The Rev. Hamilton H. Gifford performed the 3:30 o'clock ceremony at the Methodist Church in Newtonville. A reception followed the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned of white peau de soie, entraine. Her Alencon lace bodice had a scalloped neckline and short sleeves.

Her taffeta cap, styled with Alencon lace and pearls, was caught with a shoulder length illusion veil. Her cascade bouquet was designed of yellow roses, blue delphinium, stephanotis and English ivy.

Miss Louise Oncley of Newtonville was honor maid, while Miss Marilyn Clapper, Miss Elaine Remley of West Newton, Miss Janet Koch and Miss Susan Ostroff, both of Newtonville, were her other attendants.

Miller and Seddon Provide Top Appliance Sales, Service

One of the forward-looking firms in the Greater Boston area is located at 2089 Mass. avenue in Cambridge, where Miller and Seddon and Company offer sales and repairs on major home appliances, particularly air conditioning and refrigeration.

In addition, this progressive firm has a big jump on the field in automobile air conditioning and installation of electric home heating, and other electric heating needs.

Richard Seddon, proprietor, is especially proud of the company's top position in the two latter fields, for automobile air conditioning and electric heating are regarded as two of the major industries of the future by experts in the automotive and home fields.

Auto air conditioning now can be installed expertly by this firm in any car, for about $300 outlay, and the wonderful comfort afforded is leading increasing numbers of people to purchase this great unit.

They are buying not merely for luxury cars, but also for cars in the "low-priced" group, whose owners report unbelievable benefits, which delight them.

"Electric home heating is our other new business," said Mr. Seddon recently. "It does away with pipes, radiators, boilers and other plumbing, munities in the form of better educated children."

President Batchelder resides at 954 Chestnut street, Newton Upper Falls, with his wife, the former Martha Cook, and their eight-month-old daughter, Anne. He and his wife formerly taught at Chatham High School.

He received his B.A. from Boston University, and his M.A. from Bridgewater State Teachers College. He began his teaching career in 1949. He was president of Monomachus Teachers Club, Chatham Teachers Association, and Barnstable County Education Association.

He served a three-year term as Northeast Regional Director of the Department of Classroom Teachers and was a member of the organization's resolutions committee for 1955-56.

The conference at Illinois is attended by 300 teachers from all parts of the country, with seven foreign countries also represented. The organization lists approximately 500,000 of the nation's teachers as members.

OUTBOARD MOTORS

Most people when they go out in a boat propelled by an outboard motor carry an extra supply of gasoline or gasoline and oil mixture.

Many times these containers are far from being safe. Glass bottles are commonly used due to the ease of obtaining them. This type of container should never be used for this purpose.

Glass bottles are subject to break easily when hit, or crack when subjected to pressure of heat, the Chief said. Should the glass container become broken while you are away off shore your extra fuel supply would be lost.

It could be that someone at the time might be smoking and the fumes could easily be ignited, causing severe burns to the occupants of the boat or lives lost in trying to escape. Such is the price of false economy.

The chief's warning continued: "For everyone's safety and protection use only a metal Underwriter's Approved Safety Self-Closing storage container for that extra supply of gasoline."

"Coast Guard approved fire extinguishers for fire fighting should always be provided for the boat, and kept in good working order."

"The careless handling of gasoline may ruin your vacation; don't gamble with fire and death needlessly."

"Cultivate safety habits now and live. The life you save may be your own."

New Rule On Junior's $600 Summer Job

If Junior works at a summer job during the school vacation, his parents still may claim him as a dependent when they file their Federal Income Tax return next year even though he earns more than $600.

That's the word from no less authority than Frank J. Cavanagh, District Director of Internal Revenue for the Boston District, and should be most assuring to parents, many of whom are of the opinion that a child is limited to earnings of under $600.

This special rule, explained the Director, applies to children who still will be under 19 years of age at the end of the year and to children who are full time students regardless of age.

Parents who contribute more than half the support of a child in one of these categories may claim a dependency exemption regardless of the amount earned by the child.

The Director also added a good word for the working child. They are entitled to a $600 personal exemption and may be to a refund of part or all Federal Income Taxes withheld from their wages. However, it will be necessary that they file their own return after January 1, 1960, to claim refund of any amount withheld in excess of their actual tax liability.

Parents operating their own business receive further consideration under a recent IRS ruling. Under this ruling, reasonable wages paid dependent children as bona fide employees in such business are deductible. This, explained Mr. Cavanagh, modifies a previous ruling which allowed no deduction if the children used the wages paid by their parents for part of their own support.

Greyhounds Oldest Known Breed Of Dog

Greyhounds racing nightly at Wonderland Park in Revere are the oldest known breed of dog. Carvings on the tombs of Egyptian kings show the greyhound as a symbol of prestige and affluence.

Voyaging Phoenicians introduced the breed to Britain where the aristocratic tradition continued to associate the greyhound with wealth and rank.

A greyhound's value has been traced to his speed. It has been clocked at speeds exceeding 45 miles per hour, faster than any animal except the three-pronged antelope, western jack rabbit and the cheetah.

The greyhound possesses this speed because of his running style. It runs with a double suspension gallop, which propels the animal through the air twice in each of its four-cadence strides. Other animals are propelled through the air only once in each four-cadence stride. While much faster, this style of running is also the most fatiguing. Thus the greyhound cannot carry its speed far.

The submarine Archerfish sank the largest man-of-war ever downed by a submarine when she sank the 59,000-ton Japanese aircraft carrier Shinano on Nov. 29, 1944.

Newton Resident Creates Unique "Model Heart"

A temporary Newton resident has created a unique "model heart" of giant proportions which the Greater Boston Chapter of the Mass. Heart Association will present to the Museum of Science for exhibit in its proposed Hall of Man, Medicine and Public Health.

The exhibit will be built in Hollywood by George Musaphia, Boston native, now temporarily residing at 24 Belmont street, Newton. He formerly was director of special effects for major motion picture studios.

With the "transparent woman," presented to the Museum in 1956 by the Chapter, the exhibit will lead to a more complete understanding of the heart and circulation.

The heart will "pulse" and a heartbeat will be heard as the motion of the cardiac muscle is reproduced—but it will be the result of a highly ingenious optical illusion.

For the heart will actually be a color transparency, viewed through manipulable lenses.

The lenses and prisms involved in the exhibit will be made of plastic, and will weigh 150 pounds, with portions manipulated mechanically to reproduce the heart's action. Prisms in the rear of the lens will distort the original picture to give the appearance of rhythmic pulsation.

2 Newton Babe Ruth Teams Lose

The Newton North, and Newton South Babe Ruth All Star teams were shellacked Saturday afternoon.

Watertown's Joe Hehr allowed five hits as his teammates pounded out eight for a 7-2 win over Newton North at the Albemarle Playground. And Mike McCormick pitching for the Belmont All Stars allowed five hits but his mates got 10 to beat Newton South 12 to 5 at Belmont High Field.

Teams Lose In a local contest, the Sinoyns were sparked to an 8-4 win over the Waban Chiefs by the three-hit hurling of Steve Brecker at the Lincoln playground in Waban, Monday evening.

THE NEW NEW ENGLAND

It's BIGGER than you think

No, the artist didn't err in preparing this special map*. His objective was to illustrate the area of each state based on the value of its manufactured products.

Note New England's manufacturing strength in relation to the rest of the states. New England has only 1 1/2 per cent of the nation's land area and only 6 per cent of the total population, but it accounts for nearly 10 per cent of the country's manufacturing.

New plants in new fields are starting operations here practically every day. New Engand no longer is dependent upon only one or two major industries. Based on widely diversified products, our current economy is in excellent condition for the competitive future.

Meeting Held To Plan 1959 Seal Display

A meeting of the second annual Christmas Seal Window Display competition committee was held at the office of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association recently.

John Sullivan has been named as chairman of the event this year. He stressed the need for a more concentrated effort on the part of the merchants to support the work of the association.

The window display competition this year will be held from November 15 to December 15, although some merchants have indicated that they would like to keep their displays up for a longer period.

All local merchants will be contacted in September with the intention of entering the competition by donating space for a window display.

Problem - Three Lost Ducklings

Three little, wild, lost ducklings have been consigned to the care of a distraught counsellor at the Brimmer & May Day Camp at Chestnut Hills.

She is Barbara Millen, of Newton Centre; and while she affirms that there isn't an ugly one in the trio, she wants to know what to do with the little creatures.

Susan Connell, one of the campers, found the lost ducklings and turned them over to Counsellor Millen; and right there and then Barbara's troubles began.

Being suddenly presented with a duckling brood presents a problem. Barbara takes care of them at the camp and even brings them home week-ends. They have a gay time in the family bathtub, but this thing can't go on.

City officials are unable to help Barbara although someone did suggest she contact the national wild-life organization in Washington, D.C. Not a speedy solution.

Well, there's Barbara Millen's problem. If anyone has the answer, they can contact her at the camp, BEacon 2-3410.

Newton Minister Flies to Germany

A West Newton minister left Sunday by air for West Germany to complete arrangements for assignment of three full-time workers at refugee camps at Gottingen, Bielefeld and Degglingen Fels.

Rev. Dana E. Klotzle of 53 Edward road, is executive director of the Universalist Service Committee with headquarters in Boston. He plans to remain in West Germany for three weeks.

Rev. Klotzle will attend executive sessions of the International Association for Religious Freedom of which he is a member at Frankfurt, July 24 - 28.

His undertaking is in recognition of President Eisenhower's request that American voluntary agencies support the World Refugee program of the United Nations.

TELE- VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS
A special 30-minute telecast in June, "Kodak Presents Disneyland '59," marked Disneyland's fourth anniversary. One of the most interesting of the new attractions shown the public via TV is the Disneyland-Alweg Monorail system, patterned after the Alweg monorail in Cologne, West Germany. Although Disneyland Park is world renowned as an amusement center much of its content is intended to be thought-provoking as well as entertaining. And the newly constructed monorail system ranks high in this category. The Disneyland monorail is no mere toy; it's a full scale prototype of the over-head mass transit systems that in the future will be helping to relieve the traffic congestion of our large cities. It is the culmination of six years and six million dollars worth of development by Disney and Alweg craftsmen. Made of aluminum, plastic and stainless steel, the two 90-foot long trains travel overhead astride a reinforced concrete beam, held aloft by concrete piers. The height ranges from 15 to 35 feet.

Each of the three-car trains will carry 82 passengers along the nearly one-mile course. Two 55-horsepower electric motors will power each train by a design that will enable them to climb a 10 per cent grade, as compared with the 3 per cent maximum grade-climbing ability of present railroads. You saw a glimpse of the future in Disneyland '59.

For a future of increased viewing enjoyment let Lee Loumos, Inc. service your TV set. Our expertly trained technicians are thoroughly experienced in repairing all makes of sets. Congressman Stresses Dangers Of Obscene Mail In This Area

"The obscene mail problem is even more serious than people realize," warned Congressman Laurence Curtis today following a conference with Postmaster General Summerfield. Curtis is taking an active part in the campaign against such mail.

In issuing a call to newspapers and other news media to publicize the mounting danger, Congressman Curtis stated that, "the Post Office Department warns that upwards of a million children will receive unsolicited obscene material and orders for the purchase of such materials through their home mail boxes."

Curtis said that 50,000 complaints about this were received by the Department last year and that complaints are increasing.

The Congressman also said that he had received many complaints and had turned them over to the Post Office Department, as had other Congressmen.

Wasteful Trips May Cause Legislative Junket Curbs

It is ironical that members of the State Senate should be preparing to apply an economy axe to Governor Furcolo's budget at the very time disclosures are coming to light about extravagant junkets made by legislators at public expense.

Some of the trips by the lawmakers, during which they spend money as if it were about to go out of style, are so wasteful as to be preposterous.

In fairness, however, it should be reported, that only a very small percentage of legislators actually participate in the junkets, which almost always include stops at plush dining places.

A big majority of the House and Senate members never go on such trips.

Junketeering holds no attraction for most legislators. Some have no time to go even if they did want to do it. Others are fearful of the public reaction if details of the junkets get into the newspapers, as has been happening.

Strong resentment is expressed by some Representatives and Senators when a scandal does develop over wasteful junkets because they feel with some justification that those who never have gone on one of the expensive trips invariably are struck by some of the mud which flies.

B&A Trains End Newton Stops Friday

The New York Central Railroad posted notices in its commuter trains late yesterday (Wednesday) announcing that service to Newton Station is being abandoned after tomorrow.

The 8:01 and 8:26 morning trains from Newton Station, and the 4:45, 5:15 and 5:40 p.m. trains leaving South Station no longer will stop at Newton after Friday, the poster said.

The Suffolk Superior Court yesterday formalized the decision of the Department of Public Utilities which permitted the passenger service abandonment.

Earlier this month the Supreme Judicial Court upheld the DPU's ruling, and the petition by the railroad for a final decree from the Superior Court was a formality.

Newton Mayoralty Picture Still Cloudy and Confused

Bolts Smash 50-ft. Wall; Transformer

Lightning bolts struck a 50-foot wall which collapsed with a roar, and an Edison transformer during the severe electrical storms in Newton this week.

Families living in the neighborhood were aroused early Tuesday when lightning apparently struck a 50-foot length of retaining wall at 143 Charlesbank Rd., Newton.

The cement wall and a wire fence at the rear of the property of Albert J. Beatrice collapsed into the back yard of the homes of John J. Lansed at 8 Nonantum Pl. and Raymond J. Richards of 14 Nonantum Pl.

Accidental Death Of John Canty

Loses Life For Fishing Line

A ruling of accidental drowning has been returned in the death of a Newton father of four who apparently sought to retrieve a broken fishing line from the MDC Norumbega Reservoir in Weston.

Two policemen recovered the body of John J. Canty, Jr., 38, of 53 St. James — JOHN CANTY — (Continued on Page 7)

The noise of the thunder which accompanied the bolt was followed by the crashing of the wall, although residents did not discover the extent of the damage to the wall until later.

Aroused by the crashes were Mr. and Mrs. Richards, their sons, David, 16, and Raymond, Jr., 12, and a daughter, Mary, 12; Mr. and Mrs. Lansed and their daughters, Christine, 18, Carol, 13, and Laura, 9; Mr. Beatrice and his three children, Theodore, 20, Nancy, 17, and Ann, 14.

Only slight damage was done by the bolt which struck an Edison transformer at 9:40 p.m. Monday at Morton and Homer Sts., Newton Centre.

Mayor Whitmore Gratified

City Fathers Win School Committee Praise For Building Cooperation

The Newton School Committee adopted by unanimous vote recently a resolution which gave public acknowledgment to the Mayors and Boards of Aldermen who since 1948 have built new or additional school facilities.

A second resolution placed the committee in public acknowledgment "of the contributions of the Mayor's Advisory Committee on the construction of public buildings to the education of the youth of Newton" during the school year 1958-59.

This resolution pointed out that during this period the planning for the Newton South High School and the Mason-Rice Elementary School was completed and the contracts awarded; additions were planned and built for the Hamilton, Spaulding, Clafin and Countryside Schools, as well as a playground for Countryside School and the plans for an addition to the Warren Junior High School completed and the contract awarded.

The resolution stated: "The Mayor's Advisory Committee on the Construction of Public Buildings has unselfishly, unstintingly and gratefully contributed its time, efforts and intelligence as substantial factors in the success of the school building program."

Herter Declines To Run; Whitmore Under Pressure To Reconsider Decision

Newton's mayoralty picture is still cloudy and confused four weeks after Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., announced that he would not be a candidate for reelection.

Tremendous pressure has been exerted on Whitmore by civic leaders throughout Newton in an endeavor to persuade him to change his mind and consent to serve another term.

So far Mayor Whitmore has stood firm in his decision to retire from office at the end of the present year and accept a position in private industry. The pressure on him, however, is continuing.

A group of leading citizens also waited upon former Governor's Councillor Christian A. Herter, Jr., son of the Secretary of State and the Republican nominee for Attorney General last November, and urged him to become a candidate for Mayor.

Herter turned down the idea, explaining that he has made commitments in connection with his law practice which would prevent him from running for office either this year or next.

At the present time a large group of public and civic leaders, still hopeful that Mayor Whitmore may yield to their persuasion and agree to head the city government for another two years, are considering four other candidates in the event the Mayor remains adamant.

Garden City Cuts Water For Gardens

The wet summer of 1958—already surpassed this year—resulted in a drop in Newton's water consumption by half a billion gallons. The loss in revenue is approximately $100,000.

Water Department Commissioner Mark F. Croker in a report submitted to Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., said 1958 rainfall amounted to 52.92 inches, many inches above normal.

Commissioner Croker said the use of water in the Garden City was 516,763 gallons less than in the dry summer of 1957.

Pesky Starlings Defy Water And Shotgun Blasts

Just about everything except Rock 'n Roll noise has been tried by Newton police and firefighters and residents of Walter St., Newton Centre, to get rid of an objectionable invasion by starlings.

The pesky varmints have ignored pressure from fire hoses and shotgun blasts, and keep up their nightly clamor and fighting. Feathers and dead birds can be found on the sidewalks every morning.

This led the Newton Board of Health to authorize efforts to rid the trees of the pests.

Although streets in the neighborhood have the same maples, only Water St. is infested with the noisy birds. They disappear in the daytime, and return by the hundreds to make the nights hideous.

When the firefighters turned on the water, the birds took off and watched until the show was over, then returned. And the shotgun blasts by Newton police left only perforated leaves.

Seek Home Mosquito Combat Aid

Even the ducks are getting sick of the rainy weather, but the mosquitoes love it.

As a result the Newton Health Department is appealing to home owners to aid in combating the nuisance because the rain is threatening the county's control efforts.

Stagnant water in tin cans, auto tires, garbage cans, rubbish containers and plugged roof gutters were cited as likely breeding places.

Damp Thoughts of A Drip-Dry Denizen

What Is So Rare As One "Sunny" Day In Summer?

Local residents, in the clammy company of other Massachusetts citizens, are immersed in the worst summer, weatherwise, in the entire history of this section.

This damp record goes back to the earliest recorded mention of weather in the State, outdating even the first settlers.

Total rainfall of more than 16.16 inches is three times the normal for the 50 odd days since June 1st.

Citizens count the rare good days on a couple of fingers and gloom through the constant day-after-day rain, dampness, drizzle and overcast.

Cancellations of outdoor events are common. Local vacationers gaze apprehensively at the leaden skies and remain indoors, a custom much easier to take in the winter months than the supposedly "happy outdoor time" of summer; now little more than a pleasant memory.

Boston Postmaster at the Federal Building.

"Parents should not feel embarrassed if they find that their youngsters are receiving this type of mail," said Curtis. "The dealers in all secure mailing lists from various sources, and the youngsters who receive the letters are not responsible in any possible way for such receipt."

Curtis spoke with approval of the law passed by the Congress last year to insure better enforcement of the laws prohibiting obscene mail. Under the law those responsible can be prosecuted where the mail was received as well as at the point of origin.

Curtis said that he felt from his conference with Mr. Summerfield that the Post Office Department was putting on a tremendously vigorous and effective drive against the obscene mail evil.

In the meantime, the office of Middlesex County District Attorney James L. O'Dea, Jr., has launched an all-out drive against the purveyors of pornographic pictures, movies and literature and several important arrests have been made.

"Sunny Days"

record to a new — and probably, — all-time high.

The Massachusetts Department of Agriculture points to the tragedy being soaked into the records of the State's farmers and poultry growers. The results of 9 inches more of rain than normal in the last six months has resulted in losses and upsets of various kinds.

The dairyman is right out in the pouring rain and the weather isn't doing him any good.

Haying was a headache in June and it isn't any better in July. A $2 million dollar hay crop loss is the result. Our dairymen have been frustrated in their search for three fair days in a row to dry hay. They had lush pastures in both months but too much drip to get the stuff cut and indoors in a dry condition. Of course, some farmers have hay-drying equipment and grass silage storage, but not all of them.

The strawberry, elon and cucumber crops have been all but ruined, by rain; sweet corn and tomatoes are delayed up to now and only plenty of good weather ahead will save them from the same wet destruction.

The State's weather experts point out that rain has fallen on the average of one out of every two days through June and so far in July — 50 percent more than the normal frequency usually existent in these parts in the "good old summer time."

Local residents recall with mingled feelings the summer of 1957 when prayers were being wuffed heavenward for even a trickle of rain. The long, summer drought burned everything to a crisp and dropped water tables to a record low.

This time last year we had sweltered through 18 consecutive days with no measurable rainfall. Well, those prayers have been answered. We've had constant rain for the next two summers.

The Cape is being hit by a double-barreled problem, blue laws and grey skies, augmented by drip. Along the North Shore and on into the New Hampshire summer spots, red ink brightens the ledgers but not the dispositions of the resort keepers and concessionaires.

Vacationers return to their labors as pale as when they left; in fact, a healthy tan is being looked upon with suspicion.

What to do about it? It seems, in this day of electronic and scientific wonders, that some attempt could be made to rectify what appears to be an increasingly miserable condition, and a serious problem for business, health — and dispositions.

Dust bowls in the West, and glaciers in the Arctic, have been remodeled by science and the expenditure of money; and have been restored to tillable, livable areas. The cost of one rocket, fizzling out in the Florida skies, might be better invested in a survey of New England's recurring "lousy" summer weather.

In the meantime, due to the amazing variety of our weather predictions around here, outdoor lovers can expect their usual confusion over the week-end prospects.

The pulsating Pollyannas among the forecasters, radio and TV brood, can discern approaching breaks in the persistent clouds; the gloomy Guses predict more drip and dreariness, again confining most of us to the indoors. Oh, well, let's lift a couple to better days.

Mayor's Fight Looms As Confused

Lee and School Committee Chairman Haskell C. Freedman.

Gibbs is waiting for final action by the State Senate in the dispute over the Senate seat he now holds before he makes his decision on whether he will run for Mayor.

The Democratic-controlled Senate, meanwhile, is not moving as expeditiously as was expected in ruling whether Gibbs or John F. Melia of Brighton was elected last November from the Middlesex Suffolk senatorial district.

It was reported five weeks ago that the Senate was on the verge of declaring Gibbs the official winner, but no decision in the matter has been forthcoming.

City Clerk Basbas, one of the most popular officials in the municipal government, apparently would be obliged to resign from the position he now holds in order to run for Mayor.

It is understood that he would sever his present ties only if he were assured of substantial support in his mayoralty campaign. Basbas has been urged by many of his friends to toss his hat into the ring but has been awaiting developments before making his final decision.

School Committee Chairman Freedman, who also has a group trying to prod him into the fight for Mayor, is presently a candidate for reelection to the School Board.

He has not completely closed the door on the possibility of his running for Mayor but has indicated that he would prefer to remain in the School Committee and to continue practicing law.

Former Senator Lee apparently is willing to become a candidate for Mayor if the field is such that he would have a good chance of winning election. He is waiting for the situation to be clarified.

Meanwhile, Democratic Alderman Leo M. Cannon and Republican Norman E. Moore both are campaigning energetically and have no-nonsense papers in circulation. Cannon is one of the veteran members of the Aldermanic Board. He has proved

Oak Hill Girl Starts Art Classes For Local Kiddies

Something new will be added next week at the Oak Hill Library. It will be an exhibit by students of the Ullman Art School.

Actually, there is nothing quite so formal in Newton yet. But Alice Marie Ullman does teach art classes, and her pupils will stage the exhibit.

Alice is 17 years old, and will be a senior next Fall at Newton High School. Her pupils are two little girls, one 7 and the other 10.

The art to be displayed consists of some 30 pieces of work including use of poster paint, crayon, finger painting and decorated "clothespin men."

Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ullman of 25 Peregrine Rd., Oak Hill, started her art school this summer.

"My little school is divided into two three-week periods,"

Alice explained. "The work which is to be on display was done during the first period."

"We work on my porch when the weather is nice, and if it rains we go down into the cellar."

"We have sessions on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and each lasts three hours. I'll have two more pupils for the second three-week period starting in August."

The work to be displayed next week was done by Leona Breslow, 7, of 129 Spiers Rd., Oak Hill, and Erika Zamcheck, 10, of 63 Kenwood Ave., Newton Centre.

In addition to teaching her little art class, the pint-sized Alice goes to school herself. She goes to M.I.T. two nights a week studying civics and calculus.

Her mother is teaching her German at home, and even now she is making plans for next Fall when she will be art and layout editor of the 1960 Newton High Yearbook.

Last winter she worked at the "Y" on Friday nights aiding in swimming lessons.

Before the Ullman Art School started, Alice designed a one-sheet hand-lettered and illustrated "flier" which was delivered to some 400 homes in Oak Hill by her brother, Charles, 14, and a friend, John Zaccane from Wakefield.

has left many mosquito breeding spots in back yards and on private property throughout Newton," said Chief Sanitary Inspector Harlan W. Kingsbury.

He said Robert Armstrong, superintendent of the East Middlesex Control Project, warns that hundreds of mosquitos can be hatched in only four or five days from a small can of stagnant water.

"The mosquito control unit is making an all-out effort to eliminate the recent increased breeding," Kingsbury said.

"However, to obtain the best results it must have the cooperation of the householder. Residents are urged to check their premises thoroughly for containers of stagnant water and empty them."

The East Middlesex Mosquito Control Project is a cooperative program of 14 neighborhood communities. Control is accomplished by draining or spraying breeding areas. Aerial spraying is used on larger swamp areas.

In past years Newton has enjoyed excellent control. Kingsbury said, but neglect of backyard breeding spots can spoil the entire program.

have made to their eventual embarrassment has been to sign reports on junkets in which they didn't participate, merely because they didn't want to be wet blankets as far as their colleagues were concerned.

One result of the present furor over legislative junkets may be the adoption of new rules and regulations to cover the amount of money the lawmakers may spend when they take a trip for the supposed purpose of gathering information on some matter they have under consideration.

State and city officials, who travel at public expense in connection with the performance of their duties, are strictly limited to the amount they can spend for a hotel room, meals, tips and even actual travelling expenses.

For example, when Boston's Mayor John B. Hynes goes to Washington or anywhere else on municipal business, he is limited to spending $18 a day for his hotel room, three meals, his tips and any other incidental expenses apart from the actual cost of his plane or train ticket.

That means that if his hotel room costs $12 per day, which would be a very modest amount, he would have $6 left over to cover his meals and tips.

Hynes undoubtedly spends more than $18 a day on most trips. But when he does he makes up the difference out of his own pocket. In nine and a half years as mayor of Boston he has never billed the city more than $18 a day for any trip.

Similar rules apply to State department heads and to the officials in most cities and towns throughout Massachusetts.

The only persons at the State House to whom they don't apply are the members of the Legislature who, when making a trip on legislative business, can dine as sumptuously as they wish, tip as lavishly as they please, and have the taxpayers pick up the tab.

Many legislators declare privately that a code of sensible rules and regulations should be adopted to cover legislative trips and junkets. They recognize that such a step would save embarrassment for the vast majority of lawmakers who have never been on a junket and have no desire to go on one.

GOP Opposition Dooms Sales Tax

So certain are Beacon Hill observers that Governor Furcolo's sales tax bill will be defeated that they already are speculating on whether the Governor will send back the measure to the Legislature a second time, possibly in a revised form.

One reason the sales tax proposal appears doomed is that a big majority of Republican legislators are planning to vote against it.

A strange aspect to the situation is that many of the GOP House members now lined up against the bill actually favor the principle of a sales tax.

In most cases, however, they're playing politics for a variety of reasons.

Some of them declare frankly in private conversations that they would like to see the State confronted with a financial crisis in 1960, adding that they believe it might cause the voters to sweep out the Democrats a year from November.

Others say that if Governor Furcolo revised his measure to conform more closely to Republican ideas they might vote for it.

They're pretty vague as to what the Republican ideas on the matter really are, and it appears that they are at least partly interested in being able to tell the public they forced some changes on the Governor.

However, they imply that if the Governor were to submit a bill calling for a 2 per cent sales tax, which would yield less money for the state and for the cities and towns, he would have a better chance of getting it enacted.

There is some doubt in the minds of State House onlookers and probably in that of Furcolo, too, whether he can produce any sales tax bill for which a majority of the legislators would be willing to vote.

Tied in with the speculation as to whether Governor Furcolo will make a second or even a third attempt this year to obtain a sales tax, as he did last year in his withholding tax battle, is the question to what extent the Governor will fight to restore the cuts which the Senate makes in his budget.

That, of course, may affect his decision on how far to go in his drive for a sales tax.

Local Legislators Look At State

New Services Added Here In 12 Years Cost $42-millions

By DONALD L. GIBBS

It is indeed a pleasure to start a series of informal discussions through the columns of The Graphic about current legislation now before the General Court, and some of the thoughts of the Newton same.

legislators concerning the This session of the Legislature, which started in early January, has been one of the most confused, bewildering sessions in which it has been my privilege to participate since coming to Beacon Hill in 1954.

A Governor who is continually at odds with his own party, both within the House of Representatives and the Senate, who upon assuming office in 1957 denounced the "financial mess" he had inherited and promised to show us how to pull ourselves up "by our own bootstraps" has had little success.

At this late date in the year only one piece of his major legislation has been enacted, namely the withholding tax with its controversial two payments within one year. This enabled him to balance the 1959 budget. Not only has the "bootstrap lifting" failed, but we are in a "financial mess" much deeper than ever.

Deeper than ever, that is stating it mildly, for unless the Commonwealth stops this headlong rush to adopt law after law, adding new services—new expenses—taxes within this state will be unbearable. As an example of what I mean, we have added $42 million worth of new services during the last 12 years. These items were not even in previous budgets. That is about one-tenth of our entire $408 million budget passed last year. Surely, many of these new services have merit but 60 projects adding $42 million is a pace which requires sober reflection on our ability to pay.

If you, the reader, thinks that your present State taxes are high, then I'm sorry to disillusion you. It has been my privilege to be a member of the Special Commission of Taxation for the past six years. I requested this Commission to project income and expenses of the Commonwealth through the year 1964.

This report was rendered to the committee in February, 1958, and was based only on laws on the books as of January, 1958. It did not take into consideration any additional laws which would be passed in the ensuing years (or further broadening). It did consider population growth, capital expenditures, income and wage payments, employment, production, and new work opportunities and general price movements. As you can well imagine, expenditures are affected by growing population, need for new schools and community services, and by inflationary and deflationary prices. Well now, let's look at the figures.

The 1959 appropriations were 408 million dollars (budget alone) and the projected budget for 1964 is 562 million dollars—an increase of approximately 150 million dollars. Should this prove a fact, and I am sure that it won't be very far off, then we are in for trouble trying to pay our State income taxes. Our present personal income tax is bringing in about 110 million dollars so you and I will be paying at least double this present tax within four short years, be it income tax, sales tax, or some other form of taxation.

You may wonder where the increases are. It is too detailed to explain fully here but to mention a few: State salaries from 168 million to 228 million; Aid to Cities and Towns from 107 million to 130 million; Debt Service from 67 to 77 million; Pensions from 19 to 25 million. The total—again a staggering 562 million dollars.

It is natural to question, "how can this be stopped?" It is the $64 question. We should re-examine all programs now on the books and see if they are warranted and we must be extremely careful in assuming new obligations. Somewhere, somehow we must apply our good New England common sense to State expenditures.

The Biscoe car was struck by one driven by Grace T. Browne of South Natick. Her car was hit by that of Charles D. Hogan of Jamaica Plain, which in turn was rammed by the car of Gottfried W. Olson of West Roxbury.

Biscoe complained of injuries to his left arm, and Hogan complained of back injury, according to the police report. The Biscoe, Hogan and Olson cars were towed away.

Eastbound traffic was detained 45 minutes until the highway was cleared.

Pro And Con On Med. Bldg. In Auburndale

Arguments for and against the proposed medical office building and apartment house development near the Woodland MTA terminal in Auburndale were voiced Monday night at a public hearing at Newton City Hall.

Justin T. Horan, executive director of the Chamber of Commerce, recorded the board of directors in favor of the project.

Dr. Lewis L. Pilchester of 67 Berkeley street, West Newton, filed a petition containing 23 names in favor of the petition. Dr. Pilchester is a member of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital staff.

Other hospital staff members who stressed the need for a medical building near the hospital were Dr. Edwin L. Prien of 194 Waban avenue, Waban; Dr. Edgar M. Holmes of 15 Graydale Circle, Auburndale and Dr. Herbert G. Dunphy of 20 Cushing street, Newton Highlands.

Opponents to the plan filed four petitions containing 134 names, and there were 27 residents who appeared to oppose the project.

Atty. John R. Carney Jr., representing the opposition, asserted there had been no change in the character of the area to warrant a change of zone.

The land is still suitable for development in Residence "A" zone, Carney maintained, and said the change would benefit only a small group at the expense of the abutters.

Atty. Stanley S. Lewenberg of 41 Longfellow road, Waban, said he represented 28 neighbors in opposition. He said the increased traffic would be dangerous for school children, and he termed the request "spot" zoning.

Among others who spoke in opposition were Frank B. Basinow of 1904 Washington street; Dr. George W. Mitchell of 99 Stanton avenue, George F. Koller of 19 Richardson road, Newton Upper Falls, and Joseph B. Lavin of 165 Aspen avenue, Auburndale.

Billy Casper Golf Clinic At Commonwealth

Amateur stars Ted Bishop of Pine Brook, and Dave Sullivan of Charles River will supply the opposition when Billy Casper, top money winner and PGA champion, shows his wares at the Commonwealth Country Club Saturday afternoon.

The chunky champion from Chula Vista, Calif., will pair with club pro Ted Zorilla to play an 18-hole match against Bishop and Sullivan, who will be given a match handicap. Casper, one of the finest putters in the history of golf, will demonstrate putting and driving at a golf clinic starting at 4 p.m. The match will follow.

TELEVIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

When watching Amos McCoy's antics on TV's "The Real McCoy" it's difficult to believe that Walter Brennan is a graduate engineer from a college in Massachusetts and holds an honorary degree as doctor of fine arts from a college in West Virginia. He holds the distinction of being the only film actor ever to win three Academy Awards, and is recognized as one of the finest character actors in motion pictures and television.

All of Brennan's background and education pointed toward anything but acting. Born north of Boston, he is descended from one of the earliest families to settle in New England. After graduating from Rindge Tech in Cambridge he decided that the prospect of an engineering future was too dull and entered multi-time musical comedy and vaudeville instead.

In World War I Brennan spent two years in Europe as an artilleryman, nine months in the front lines. "I made corporal before I got out," he says proudly. In the late twenties Brennan and Gary Cooper became buddies, haunting the movie casting offices in Hollywood together, sharing each other's meager fortunes until suddenly fortune smiled on both of them almost simultaneously. When not working on TV and movie roles Brennan spends much of his time on his 18 square mile Oregon cattle ranch near the Snake River.

Newton Teen-Agers Adopt Worthy Cause As Project

Newton teen-agers gave substantial assistance to a worthy cause recently when a check for $550 was presented to the junior division of the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children by the Jawn Club of Newton.

Arnold Piacenti, president of the junior division, announced the gift this week.

The Jawn Club, a social organization of Newton High School students, raised the money at their third annual Benefit Dance for retarded children.

This local teen-age group has taken the Association for Retarded Children as its special project.

In addition to its annual gift, Jawn Club members assist the association's junior division in its recreational and social-training activities for retarded children at its headquarters, 42 the Fenway, Boston.

Carol Sudhalter, Jawn Club president, stated that the gift has been designated to support a year-round program of public education, assistance in social programs for adolescent retardates, and its work as fund-raising auxiliary of the association.

The junior division also supports an annual scholarship program for deserving students planning careers in work with the handicapped.

Outdoor Theatre For Kiddies Is Rained Off Bill

The continuing rainy weather in this section, now establishing new records in daily inclemency and misery, caused permanent cancellation of the outdoor Children's Theatre scheduled for two appearances, morning and afternoon, last Tuesday at the Newton High School stadium.

Recreation Department officials stated that more than 1200 youngsters and adults enjoyed the show last year.

Praise Officials-

(Continued from Page 1) of the Board of Aldermen and the Mayor's Advisory Committee for the cooperation and understanding of the School Committee in the joint effort to work out new buildings and the program allied with them.

"Also, I know I can express the appreciation of the Department Heads for the constructive cooperation they have received from the members of the School Department staff concerned with these building projects.

"It is a gratifying experience to have these two branches of the city government work together in solving common problems," the Mayor's letter said.

The resolution praising the Advisory Committee was offered by School Committee-man Manuel Beckwith and seconded by School Committee-man Francis P. Frazier.

The other resolution outlined the work done on school construction and addition since 1948.

The resolution was signed by Haskell C. Freedman, chairman of the Newton School Committee, and Charles E. Brown, secretary. It was offered by School Committee-man Edwin Hawkrige, and seconded by Mrs. Grace C. Whitmore.

It was pointed out that since 1948 the population of the Newton public schools has increased by 5,435 pupils, and added: "this splendid record of accomplishment has been due to the outstanding service, contributions and cooperation of the Finance Committee, Public Building Committee and Education Committees of the Board of Aldermen, as well as the other members of the Board and all the mayors who have served the city since 1948."

It listed the following buildings either completed or under construction or to which additions were made:

South High School, Technical High, Meadowbrook Junior High, Warren Junior High, Beethoven, Bowen, Cabot, Clafin, Countryside, Emerson, Franklin, Hamilton.

Also, Mason-Rice School, Memorial, Murray Road, Peirce, Spaulding, Ward and Williams.

The resolve added: "A due regard for the excellent teamwork that has and does exist between the City Administration and the Newton School Committee in this area of school buildings warrants public recognition of this fact."

Boost Shown In Newton's Tennis Play

Recreation Commissioner C. Evan Johnson's interest in the tennis program on the city's 45 municipal courts is best illustrated by a marked increase in membership of the department's Tennis Clinic conducted at Burr Playground.

Commissioner Johnson, in encouraging children to play tennis, stresses that tennis is a great game for training in life, healthy fun, coordination of mental and physical abilities and it stimulates a competitive drive to win.

Burr Playground in Newton has been called "The Longwood of Newton's Municipal Court System" and the history of Municipal Tennis in Newton would show that it richly deserves this title. Burr Playground has held the lead in developing tennis players over the past 35 year period.

Even though during the past several years Burr's supremacy has been threatened by the rise of other sections of the city one can understand that its leadership can be attributed to the popularity of its annual summer tennis clinic.

Still Time To Enter Newton Tennis Tourney

Newton Recreation Department officials advised any tardy applicants for the annual city-wide tennis tournaments for girls and boys that there is still time today to sign up for the event.

Miss Joan Lafford, tournament director, will receive applications today at the Burr Playground. There are no entry fees. She may be contacted by phone at LA 7-1576.

The girls tournament will be held at the Burr Playground next Monday, July 27th; the boys tourney will be held at the same site on Tuesday July 28th. The finals will be held on Thursday, July 30th.

Tennis balls will be furnished by the Recreation Department and trophies will be awarded to winners and runners-up.

Tournament play will be governed by the following regulations:

Players may enter one division only. Girls' tourney on Monday, July 27th. Those in the junior division may not have reached their 14th birthday as of July 1, 1959. Senior division entrants may not have reached their 17th birthday as of July 1, 1959.

The boys' tourney will be held Tuesday, July 28th. Junior and senior division age requirements are the same as those prevailing in the girls' brackets.

The resolution praising the Advisory Committee was offered by School Committee-man Manuel Beckwith and seconded by School Committee-man Francis P. Frazier.
The other resolution outlined the work done on school construction and addition since 1948.
The resolution was signed by Haskell C. Freedman, chairman of the Newton School Committee, and Charles E. Brown, secretary. It was offered by School Committee-man Edwin Hawkrige, and seconded by Mrs. Grace C. Whitmore.
It was pointed out that since 1948 the population of the Newton public schools has increased by 5,435 pupils, and added: "this splendid record of accomplishment has been due to the outstanding service, contributions and cooperation of the Finance Committee, Public Building Committee and Education Committees of the Board of Aldermen, as well as the other members of the Board and all the mayors who have served the city since 1948."
It listed the following buildings either completed or under construction or to which additions were made:
South High School, Technical High, Meadowbrook Junior High, Warren Junior High, Beethoven, Bowen, Cabot, Clafin, Countryside, Emerson, Franklin, Hamilton.
Also, Mason-Rice School, Memorial, Murray Road, Peirce, Spaulding, Ward and Williams.

Chest X-Ray Clinic Has Heavy Response; Held On Wednesdays

The Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association has reported a large turnout of local residents, of both sexes, over 19 years of age, who have responded to the appeal in last week's Graphic to have chest X-rays taken before going on the annual summer vacation.

A clinic is held every Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital admitting office under the sponsorship of the local TB group.

It was reported that women outnumbered the men in making applications for the X-rays although many local business and professional men were numbered among the applicants.

The large response to the notice last week was most pleasing to the Tuberculosis organization. However, more men are asked to have the X-rays taken.

The clinics will be continued throughout the summer every Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, for local residents 19 years or over, of both sexes.

Appointments must be made through the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, 1357 Washington Street, West Newton. Phone Bigelow 4-4911.

The smiling, stocky, young man arrived in this city from New York on Monday. He spent two days at the Newton Institution meeting new friends and becoming oriented to places and people in his new environment.

He was greeted by James Sullivan, administrator of the Rehabilitation Centre.

Van Mingroot, who became blinded in 1957, arrived in the United States from Colombia, South America, where he was an interpretive translator.

He speaks nine languages, including French, English, German, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, Danish, Swedish and Arabic.

While in Colombia, he appeared regularly on television as a musician. He plays the guitar, accordion and chromatic harmonica.

He makes his home in New York with his wife, Norma, an American citizen. He looks forward to becoming an American citizen in three years.

When he completes his training at St. Paul's in Newton, he hopes to find work as an oral interpreter, work in which his familiarity with nine languages will be useful.

A world traveler, Van Mingroot, born in Rotterdam, Holland, moved first to Amsterdam. With war he moved to Belgium, then to Germany,

Honor Balcus At Newton Bank Outing

Employees of the Newton National Bank enjoyed a smorgasbord dinner and danced to the music of Mike Belson's orchestra at their recent annual outing at the Marlboro Country Club.

A highlight was the presentation of a leather suitcase to John Balcus in honor of his 25 years' employment at the bank. He has been auditor since 1947, and presently is the only employee with 25 years service. The presentation was made by Mrs. Frances Moss, secretary of the Newton National Bank Associates, a group made up of all the bank's employees.

Union Service On Sunday At Eliot Church

The Newton Methodist and Eliot Churches will hold union services at the Eliot Church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Arthur A. Rouner, Jr., minister of the First Congregational Church of Christ, of Williamsburg, Mass., will be the preacher. Mrs. Etta Randle will be soloist; Mrs. Eleanor Jackson, the organist.

St. Newton, on their second dive into the rain-whipped water at 3:06 a.m. Tuesday. Canty was the MDC water engineer.

The search was begun shortly after midnight when John J. Dunn Jr., 30, of Concord street, Newton Lower Falls, the relief watchman at the reservoir, reported that Canty was missing. Dunn notified the MDC police.

A search of the shore disclosed Canty's neatly piled clothing. Near shore they found a length of fish line with a bobber in the water. His car was parked nearby. Weston Fire Department searchlights illuminated the scene in the rain off Oak street, as Patrolmen Lawrence J. Cugini and MDC Patrolman Salvatore Bonsignore entered the water in the overflow section.

The body was recovered in 14 feet of water, some 60 feet from shore. The water is shallow at the bank, and then drops sharply to well over a man's depth.

The body was taken to the Mullin Funeral Home in Waltham, where it was viewed by Dr. Peter A. Angelo, the Medical Examiner.

Dr. Angelo said it appeared that Canty had been fishing after 4 p.m., that his line broke, and that he went in the water to retrieve the hook. There was a gash on the back of his head.

The investigators based their belief on the fact that there was no record of the water level at 5 p.m. Canty's job was to keep an hourly record.

Canty worked as a reservoir attendant in addition to being employed at the George J. Barker Lumber Co., in Waltham.

He was a graduate of Newton High School and an Army veteran of World War I. He was active in the Holy Name Society of Our Lady's Parish, and the Knights of Columbus.

Canty is survived by his widow, Mabel; his children, Laraine, 14, Gregory, 12, John III, 9, and Susan, 2; also his father, John, Sr.; a sister, Mary, and two brothers, William and Frank. The latter is of Sudbury, all others from Newton.

of 144 Fuller street, West Newton.

Glass, who is with Enterprise Stores, praised the pilot, Capt. John E. Harris of Chicago, who reversed the propellers instantly when he felt the landing gear give way.

The nose of the DC-6 was damaged, and the four propellers were twisted as they scraped along the concrete runway.

"I was sitting next to the propellers and could see the landing gear which was down," Glass explained.

"Then we came down fast, the left wing dipped and seemed almost to hit the runway."

"We skidded about two or three seconds. The propellers scraped the runway, and I was afraid the propellers would come through the cabin."

"But the plane stopped fairly fast and the pilot calmly directed the passengers out of the cargo door, where they were helped to the ground."

Richard L. Kinchla, of Dorchester, formerly of Newton, who heads the food advertising department of a Boston newspaper, said the landing gear collapsed about ten seconds after the plane touched down.

The plane was making an instrument landing in the heavy fog and drizzle when it skidded to a stop within 150 yards, he said.

One of three scientists from the Lincoln laboratory returning from New York was Thomas F. Coffey of 1193 Walnut street, Newton Highlands.

DeNucci Wins Oppose Bus By KO in 5th Feeder To Riverside

Newton's 19-year-old Joe DeNucci was back in the win column today after he registered his 21st victory with a knockout over Archie Whitfield in New Zedford.

DeNucci, who weighed in at 164, scored a knockout in 1:35 of the fifth round of a scheduled 10-rounder Tuesday night. Whitfield gave away nine pounds.

The Nonantum bomber flattened Whitfield with a left jab and a right cross after setting him up earlier in the round with a series of combinations. DeNucci's record is marred only by the two defeats suffered of the veteran campaigner, Chico Vejar.

An objection was filed this week with Newton city officials against the petition of the Middlesex and Boston Street Railway Co. to set up a route to feed the MTA parking lot at Riverside.

The objection to the petition was filed with City Clerk Monte G. Basbas by Morris I. Bearak of 38 Brae Burn road, Auburndale. He contended that Newton's share of the MTA deficit would be increased by outside commuters, and that traffic hazards on Grove street, Auburndale, would be raised by the added bus movements. The city should not allow its roads to be used for outsiders, Bearak asserted, if it would affect the city's share of the deficit.

Seven presidents of the U.S. were born in Ohio.

The petition for the new bus lines will be given a public hearing by the Board of Aldermen Monday, August 3 at 7:45 p.m. at City Hall.

Life Guards-

Hospital, Supervisor of First Aid.

The Crystal Lake Guards are selected for their assignments only after they have proven their aquatic skill, passed competitive tests, physical examinations and shown that they can become members of the "Safe Swimming Team" that guards the youngsters.

Most of the guards have grown up swimming at Crystal Lake as youths. A good example is Head Guard Mark Peterson, one of three brothers, all of whom have been guards at Crystal Lake and are sons of Dr. Thomas H.
Peterson of Newton Centre.
Mark started his swimming at the age of three and has spent eighteen of his twenty-one years as a summer swimmer at Crystal Lake and now succeeds his brother as head guard.

Recreation Commissioner,
C. Evan Johnson stated,
"These guards through their professional training, education and personality, working as a 'team' are always on the alert to see that our youngsters swim safely and learn the good swim habits that make their swimming more fun."

Crystal Lake opened for the season on June 13th and even though rainy weather has resulted in reduced attendance on these days, hot weather day crowds have shown a marked increase in attendance over last season. Over five thousand season swim permits have been sold so far this season and it is anticipated that over 10,000 permits will be sold for the whole season.

"South Pacific" Is Restaurant To Delight Tastes Of Gourmets

winning new friends is South Pacific, at 1152 Beacon street in Newton, one of the most unusual restaurants in New England, where are served exotic and authentic Chinese and South Pacific delicacies.

The restaurant has earned its right to be termed "A Gourmet's Delight" with its menu including both conventional and special items, using only the finest of ingredients, and with a kitchen and serving staff capable of fulfilling the wishes of the most critical customer.

The guiding genius of South
Pacific is Manager Mansfield
Chan, and his long experience in the business is reflected in the wonderful food customers have come to enjoy so much that they return steadily, and this is about the finest recommendation any restaurant can have.

The Chinese cuisine is in the Cantonese style, and the South Pacific dishes include South Pacific Treasure, and other similar items made from blends of lobster, chicken, shrimp, and carefully prepared vegetables, all blended in the inimitable way known to Chinese style cooking experts.

South Pacific is open Sunday through Thursday from noon to 11 p.m., on Friday from noon to midnight, and on Sunday until 1 a.m. Luncheon specials at economical prices are daily items, and the menu expands in unique fashion from there on.

Orders to take out are a specialty, and a phone call to DE 2-1147 or LA 7-9611 will assure customers that the orders will be ready at any specified time.

In addition, South Pacific

Hawaiian Folk Dances Taught At Hawthorn

Hawaiian Folk Dances are an interesting and major part of the Hawthorn Playground.

Recreation leader, Miss Laura Turbini lived on Oahu in the Hawaiian Islands as a young girl while her father the late Captain Lauro J. Turbini, U.S. Dental Corps was stationed there in the U. S. Navy. While there she learned the native songs and folk dances.

Miss Turbini gives the youngsters instructions in dance skills and shows them how to make the traditional Hibiscus or headdress, the grass skirt, and the lei, made from multi-colored crepe paper. To make these costumes it takes many hours of creative and exacting handwork. In one of the dances Hawaiian Lava rocks are used as castenets to assimilate the characteristic Hawaiian rhythm.

Classes are divided into two groups: Beginners Dance Program: "Little Brown Gal," "A Song of Old Hawaii," "Hukilau" and "A Cane." Participants are: Mary Antonellis, Mary Anne Anese, Florence Getrone, Joanne Pelligrini, Joyce Gatti, Janice Gatti, Andrea DeLuco, Helen Santillo, Christine Zubinski, Mary Marini, Carol Getrone, Donna Carpenter, Margaret Hackett.

Intermediate Dance Program: "Lovely Hula Hands," "Tutu E," "Hula Lolo," and "Blue Lei." Participants are: Marianne Mazzola, Theresa DeLuco, Patricia Fontano, Grace Butler, Judith Antonellis, Kathleen Magni, Lucianne Magni, Arlene Magni, Angela Desomone, and Linda Malloy.

"Humane but just treatment with hope in the future, could be theme of this movie," said Sheriff Howard W. Fitzpatrick, who was represented in Milwaukee by Deputy Master Brocklesby.

"Even though the movie's emphasis is on rehabilitation," said Fitzpatrick who is High Sheriff of Middlesex County, "we also expect it to be a strong message for juveniles because it presents a graphic picture of a local penal institution."

The 27-minute color movie was filmed by a group of volunteers under the technical supervision of Gilbert Studio. Amateur actors served as "inmates" at Billerica.

Newton Girl Flies With Nixon

Marsha Egan
Was Stewardess

If Nikita Khrushchev had changed his mind a day sooner, a 26-year-old Newton airline stewardess would still be in Russia as a member of the crew of Vice President Nixon's plane.

Miss Marsha Egan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Egan of 536 Walnut St., was a stewardess on the Pan American 707 jet which flew the Nixon party to Moscow last week.

The Vice President had expected to use the same jet on his flights over Siberia to Tokyo, but the Russians refused permission.

The Pan American jet with its American crew returned home and landed in New York on Sunday.

That same evening in Moscow Soviet Prime Minister Khrushchev telephoned Mr. Nixon, according to an Associated Press report, that he

Fifth Auto Death For 1959 Here

The fifth auto fatality of 1959 in Newton was recorded with the death last Friday of Adelmo Vanni, 71, of 350 Linwood avenue, Newtonville, at Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

Vanni, a plaster caster for Contemporary Arts, Inc., of Boston, was struck by a car as he crossed Walnut street, near Linwood avenue, in Newtonville, early in the evening of April 17. The car was driven by a Dedham man, according to police.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Palma L. (Molenelli) Vanni, one son, Leo D., of West Newton and two grandchildren.

A requiem Mass was offered Monday in Our Lady's Church, and burial was in new Calvary Cemetery, Boston.

Reading Glasses Lead Wrong Way

Judge W. Lloyd Allen, sitting in Newton district court this week, was unimpressed when a Needham resident testified that the reason he had driven his automobile onto the railroad tracks in Newton Upper Falls was that he had on his reading glasses at the time. The jurist fined Henry S. O'Brien of 48 High street, Needham, a total of $45 for the oversight after police testified that O'Brien had driven about 100 feet along the tracks at Oak street.

Cyclists Pedal Three Miles To Close Clinic

A unique cross-country bicycle cavalcade climaxed the final Bicycle Safety Clinic held for the West Newton Playgrounds last Tuesday afternoon and came to a glorious, and well-stuffed conclusion when more than 100 youngsters and their recreation leaders enjoyed a cook-out under the trees at the Auburndale picnic area.

The clinic was jointly sponsored by the Newton Recreation Department and the Police Department.

The 100 youngsters and their leaders rode over a cross-country route of about three miles. Led by Safety Officer Charles Feeley, the group started out from West Newton Common Playground, rode up Webster street to Lexington cross Commonwealth avenue, street. They dismounted to then pedaled off to the Lyons Playground roadway area and to the picnic grounds.

Hot dogs, milk and all the familiar fixins, were served to the hungry cyclists. Guests included Police Chief Philip Purcell, Recreation Commissioner C. Evan Johnson, Recreation Supervisor Nicholas P. Tedesco, and Safety Officer Lieutenant James Corcoran.

Playgrounds participating were: Davis, Franklin, Murray road, River street, Wellington, and West Newton.

Recreation leaders led by Supervisor Miss Lillian Swartz, were: Barbara Sutcliffe, Viola Carter, Caryl MacLaughlin, Anne Andrews, Roberta Wombolt, Dianne Rote, Frank Piselli, Paul Healy, James Fitzpatrick, Thomas McGinnis, Lee Duncan, Peter Conroy and David Connor.

City Wins Route 128 Tax Suit

The City of Newton has won the suit brought by the Atlantic Refining Company for abatement of taxes paid in 1955 and 1956 on its station on Route 128.

The Appellate Tax Board, by a vote of 4 to 1, ruled this week that gasoline stations and restaurants built on land leased from the state on limited-access highways are subject to local taxation.

Atlantic leases the land from the Department of Public Works, and builds the facility itself. Title then reverts to the Department. Howard Johnson operates as a sub-lessee.

The Atlantic Co. sought abatement of $9,658 paid in taxes in 1955 and $9,974 in 1956. — WINS SUIT —

Crystal Lake May Reopen On Weekend

Recreation Commissioner C. Evan Johnson told the Newton Graphic today that Crystal Lake would not be re-opened to swimmers at last before the weekend.

"Notices will be posted at the playgrounds when the lake will be re-opened," the Commissioner said.

Crystal Lake was closed last Friday, July 24, at noon.

The Newton Health Department and the Recreation Department agreed that the water tests showed a relatively high count of bacteria due to the heavy rains, and the tremendous load of swimmers, made it imperative that the lake be closed until there were three successive satisfactory water tests within the limits of reasonable health safety.

A statement from the Recreation Department said: "As a general rule when these conditions are present it is usually four or five days before satisfactory tests are reached."

Speed Chase As Local Man Seeks to Elude Police

Eugene Grace, 40, of 432 Newtonville avenue, pleaded innocent in Newton District Court on Saturday to charges of disturbing the peace and being lewd in speech and behavior.

His case was continued until August 25 and he was released on his own recognizance by Judge W. Lloyd Allen.

Grace was arrested by Newton police after a high speed auto chase. They charged that he attempted to elude a stake-out set up to apprehend a man who had been reported as making improper advances over the telephone to a 14-year old Auburndale girl.

Thronged Rites For Ex-Mayor Lockwood

Was Newton's
22nd Executive

Final tribute to Newton's 22nd Mayor, Theodore R. Lockwood, was paid Monday afternoon in thronged Eliot Congregational Church in Newton.

Civic, legislative, fraternal and business leaders thronged the new edifice at 474 Centre street, in a final farewell to the man who served Newton as an alderman for 10 years before becoming the city's chief executive for six years.

Flags throughout the city were at half staff for the 72-year-old Mr. Lockwood who was found dead in bed Thursday at his home in Jaffrey, N. H., where he lived for the past five years.

The ex-mayor was in good health when he retired Wednesday night. He was found dead by Mrs. Lockwood, the former Ida Rivers. He also leaves a daughter, Doris Hostetter, wife of Rev. Paul Hostetter of New Jersey, three grand children, five sisters and a brother.

Private funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Congregational Church in Jaffrey.

Public services were held Monday at 3 p.m. at the Eliot Church in Newton. Interment was in Newton Cemetery.

Rev. Ray A. Eusden, D.D., minister of the Church, and Rev. Hostetter, officiated at the public services.

Mr. Lockwood's civic service in Newton began Jan. 1938, when he assumed the office of alderman, and ended on Jan. 1, 1954 on his retirement as mayor.

Youngsters nine years old or over, with their parents' consent, must register with their leaders on their own playground area. There is no charge for the game ticket, but a 50 cents bus fare must accompany each registration before 4 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 4.

Survey Reveals Increased Participation

City-Wide Recreation Program Is Headed For Top Year Of All

A marked increase in participation in the Newton Recreation Department's summer program activities was reported by Recreation Commissioner C. Evan Johnson, in a mid-summer review of the program this week.

"It is evident that the recreation program thus far has had a marked increase in participation in most play areas throughout the city, with youngsters and parents' interest high in the various activities," Mr. Johnson said. "The second half of our summer season should be of equal value and by comparison the whole summer recreation season should be one of our best."

The first half of the summer season included: baseball leagues; American, National, Babe Ruth, Midget, Junior Leagues; industrial and club softball leagues; girls' softball, kickball and dodgeball league; all have passed their season half-way marks.

Bicycle safety over a two week period included most of Newton's thirty-two playground areas. "Learn To Swim" program conducted by the American Red Cross at Crystal Lake is another activity of the Newton Recreation Department.

The Burr Tennis Clinic conducted at Burr Playground is a very popular and well attended activity. The highlight of this clinic is the city-wide senior and junior girls' and boys' tennis tournament held at Burr Playground.

A craft workshop clinic was held at the Edwin O. Childs Recreation Centre for recreation leaders. Youngsters and parents have taken field trips, beach trips, cook-out picnics;

"Suburbia Today" Tells The Story

Typical American Family In Russia For U.S. Exposition

That bright, little friend of local readers, the August issue of "Suburbia Today" comes visiting with next week's issue of this newspaper.

Once again the magazine is replete with a variety of interesting features, articles, pictures and cartoons.

Of special interest this month is the story of the Ted Davis family, of Short Hills, New Jersey. This family of five, a commuting father, busy homemaker wife, two sons and a daughter, was the selection as America's typical suburban family.

As a result of their being picked by the U. S. Fashion Industries, the Davis brood is now in Russia as a charming part of the United States National Exhibition in Moscow.

Police said he drove a car which struck the rear of the parked auto of Raymond J. Stevens, 17, of 266 Crescent street, Waltham, who was

Start City Insurance Plan Aug. 1

Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr. has announced that on Aug. 1 the contributory insurance program for 2300 regular Newton city employees goes into effect.

The Mayor urged all employees to purchase the complete package. The city is to pay half the cost of Blue Cross-Blue Shield hospitalization, surgical and medical coverage, and half the cost of $2000 life insurance, $2000 accidental death and dismemberment insurance.

Youngsters nine years old or over, with their parents' consent, must register with their leaders on their own playground area. There is no charge for the game ticket, but a 50 cents bus fare must accompany each registration before 4 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 4.

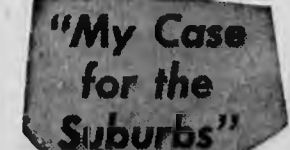

Last year, Newton Playground Baseball Day had a total attendance of over 900 youngsters.

Featured are eight tempting ways to keep cool — frosty, refreshing drinks made with fruit, coffee or tea, and the best ice-cream soda you'll ever make.

The "Unusual Suburban Home" feature tells the story of Topline Farms, with pictures. Built when George Washington was President, its original, quaint six rooms have been transformed into a twenty-room piece of suburban magic.

All the regular features will be ready with new ideas, fun and information.

The cover by Laura Jean Allen depicts a humorous version of "Come On In, The Water's Fine," with a zany group of soggy suburbanites splashing about in the water.

Norman E. Moore Reviews Civic Service in Newton

Norman E. Moore, who is campaigning for election as the next Mayor of Newton, today reviewed his part in the business and community life of the city for the past decade.

He pointed out that he has managed his own business in Newton for more than 10 years, during which time he has been an active Rotarian, a member of the Newton Lodge of Elks and a past charter president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Moore served as a chairman of a number of charitable drives, including those for the Heart Fund, the Salvation Army, Muscular Dystrophy and Cerebral Palsy.

Approximately 12 years ago, he was vice president of the PTA Council and declares that he still takes a great deal of pride in having assisted former Superintendent of Schools Homer Anderson in his program for the establishment of new schools in Newton.

While he was vice president of the PTA Council, he established a child welfare program which provides funds used to purchase milk and eye glasses for children whose parents were in needy circumstances. He is presently a member Charles Dockser Named President of New Trust Co.

Charles E. Dockser, of 12 Drumlins road, Newton Centre, has been elected president and chairman of the board of the newly organized Garden City Trust Company according to an announcement by the board of directors this week.

This city's newest commercial bank will be located at 232 Boylston street, Newton, in the Chestnut Hill section.

Mr. Dockser is chairman of the board of directors of the North Quincy Co-operative Bank, a former director of the Guaranty Trust Company, Waltham, and a member of the Massachusetts Bar.

A resident of Newton, he is married and the father of four children. He was appointed a Master in Chancery in Middlesex County by former Governor Norbert Herter, and is a member of the Greater Boston Real Estate Board.

of the Newton Republican City Committee, is serving his second term as first vice president of the Newton Republican Club and has served on the Republican Finance Committee at the State level.

Moore served as co-chairman with Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., in the campaign of the late Mayor Theodore Lockwood.

He was campaign manager last year for the late George Fingold in the latter's successful drive for the Republican nomination for Governor, having previously served as Fingold's chief secretary from the time the latter became Attorney General.

Moore declares that, like many other close friends of Fingold, he was stunned and upset by the late Attorney General's sudden and tragic death last Labor Day weekend.

He asserts that he was confronted with the decision of whether he should resign from his position in the Attorney General's office or serve out his term which ran to January 20 of this year.

Moore says that he decided to continue on his job when Edward J. McCormack, Jr., was elected Interim Attorney General by the Legislature and that he held the post until Jan. 20 of this year.

He adds that he took no part whatever in last year's political campaign.

Moore states that Governor Furolo offered him a position on the State Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission which under the law had to be filled by a Republican and that he accepted it in the knowledge that the position had to go to a Republican.

But he did not, Moore declared, support Furolo or anyone else in last fall's election. He explains that at the time he was still virtually in a state of shock as a result of George Fingold's death.

After the war he entered Boston University from which he was graduated in 1948. He was recalled to active duty at Air Force Command in 1951.

He was one of the first officials associated with the Academy construction program. He worked with the Site Selection Commission, coordinated unrolling of the original designs by the architect-engineer and handled press relations during the Academy's planning phase.

He is well known in the Pikes Peak region as a public speaker, having addressed virtually every organization in the area on the subject of Academy construction.

He expressed regret this week at leaving Colorado Springs which he said "we have come to look upon as our adopted home."

The permanent site of the Air Force Academy is located seven miles north of Colorado Springs. Construction is 95.2 percent complete. About $112.5 million worth of work is done. The site covers 17,800 acres on a broad natural mesa.

Fourth of July celebrations were held at the Newton Centre and Upper Falls playgrounds by improvement associations.

Second-half summer season events scheduled are: district and city-wide baseball and softball championships; city-wide girls' softball, kickball, and dodgeball championships; achievement awards; craft awards; individual play days on all thirty-two playground areas with intra-playground competition in games, races, costume parades, craft exhibits and other special events.

Newton Baseball Playground Day at Fenway Park will see the Boston Red Sox play the Kansas City Athletics. Newton Day as tennis guests of the Longwood Cricket Club at Chestnut Hill features the United States Tennis Doubles Championships.

60 Awards For Playground Kiddies

Sixty outstanding boys and girls, participants in Newton's extensive outdoor program in progress at the city's 30 playground areas, will again be presented special Achievement Award Statuettes at the close of the season by the Newton Recreation Department.

These popular and most coveted Recreation Department awards are given annually to the boys and girls of each play area who best exemplify outstanding qualities during the playground season.

Recreation Commissioner, C. Evan Johnson says, "We are concerned with the youngsters who appreciate what the community has done for them and have chosen this method of recognizing the leaders of tomorrow."

Recreation leaders throughout the season will be on the alert to notice youngsters who best fulfill the award requirements. Three days before the Annual "Play Days," leaders submit winners' names in a sealed envelope to the Recreation Office. Winners remain unknown until the award presentation.

To be an achievement award winner the following qualifications are considered.

Leadership — shows outstanding leadership qualifications by taking the initiative in organizing activities, helping the less adept in handicraft, and seeing that safety rules are followed.

Cooperation — is prompt to help in promoting new ways and varied activity, whether it involves another game or cleaning up.

Participation — in all, or nearly all of the varied playground activities and finishing whatever is started.

Good Sportsmanship — in the traditional American spirit instinctively practices good sportsmanship, being quick to positively oppose unsportsmanlike conduct by anyone.

Neatness — while not a prude, keeps a neat, well groomed appearance consistent with the physical condition of the playground and the types of activities participated in.

By LEE LOUMOS

Two new highly imaginative series are scheduled for fall premieres by the CBS-TV Network. "The Twilight Zone" will start October 2. "The Outer Limits" will start October 15. Both series will project the perils and triumphs of man in his efforts to reach and conquer outer space. The time will be the near future, relatively speaking, when man will overcome the obstacles that lie between the earth's surface and the stars. The series will give a fictional preview of the placing of manned vehicles in earth's orbit, the first landing on the moon, the exploration of the solar system, and steps beyond. Production will be aided by many experts in the field of rocketry, including representatives of the U. S. Air Force, Army, Navy, Department of Defense and industrial concerns actively engaged in production of the "hardware" used in the assault upon the beyond. "The Twilight Zone" will be unusual dramas dealing with the strange-but-fictional, with fantasy and at times the occult.

Other new CBS-TV series are: "Johnny Ringo," adult western starring Don Durant, starting October 11; "The Dennis O'Keefe show," a comedy series beginning Sept. 22; "Undercover Man," a filmed adventure series starring Mike Connors; "The Lawbreakers," full-hour series on American criminals, starting Sept. 22, with Ralph Meeker acting the part of Dillinger in the premier showing. Some of these new shows should be really worth waiting for. But you don't need to wait until fall to enjoy interesting television and radio shows if your set is in good operating condition. If your set needs repairing call Lee Loumos, Inc. for prompt, expert service at very reasonable fees.

How can you find just the right fire, automobile or liability insurance — the policy that provides exactly the amount of protection you and your family need, at the most reasonable rates? Obviously you don't want to search through the maze of insurance policies offered by all the hundreds of insurance companies in the United States. On the other hand, you don't want a high-pressure salesman to try to convince you that his company's particular policy is the only one you should consider. The answer is: Choose an impartial, local insurance agent. He is an experienced specialist, qualified to study your needs and tell you which policy of which insurance company suits you to a "T." Whenever you are thinking about insurance, select your nearby agent who displays this seal.

the flags lowered in tribute to Mr. Lockwood. The proclamation said in part:

"He served our community devotedly for 16 years as alderman and as mayor. Under his able guidance and administration, the city made rapid strides in catching up on facilities and services postponed during World War II, and in planning for the growth of the city.

"He participated in many civic and charitable activities and affairs of Eliot Church. He initiated Halloween parties for the children. He was a former president of the Massachusetts Mayors' Association."

On Jan. 2, 1947, Theodore R. Lockwood was sworn in as mayor for his first term. In his inaugural address he recommended that Newton avail itself of the Metropolitan water supply, and requested that the Board of Aldermen begin work on the veterans housing project in Oak Hill, to house 367 veterans' families.

The Mass. Mayors Association on July 2, 1949, cited Mayor Lockwood as "the mayor who has rendered the most valuable service to the association during the past six months." It cited his "effective endeavors responsible for distribution of $4,700,000 state taxes to cities and towns."

In his inaugural address on June 1, 1950, Mayor Lockwood opposed "any merger with Boston," he recommended a 5-day week for policemen, a 40-hour work week for city employees who had been working 44 hours, and proposed women be added to the police force on traffic duty during school hours.

The women traffic officers went on duty in Newton March 15, 1950.

The inaugural address on Jan. 2, 1952, for his third term was marked by proposed economies to permit increases in salaries of municipal employees. Mayor Lockwood urged elimination of such "luxury" items as swimming pools and playgrounds.

Mayor and Mrs. Lockwood were guests of honor at a testimonial dinner on Dec. 14, 1953, given by the Newton Chamber of Commerce. Over 600 persons attended the dinner at the Brae Burn Country Club, including Senator Leverett Saltonstall and Mayor-Elect Whitmore Jr.

Mr. Lockwood was born in Boston on May 23, 1887. Before he became Mayor, he was a partner in the firm of Lockwood-Brackett Co., makers of Laco products, and was affiliated with the Earnshaw Mills of Newton.

He was a veteran of World War I in which he served as an officer in Europe with the 303rd Infantry Battalion. He was a charter member of the Newton Post, American Legion.

He was active in Masonic circles, being a member of Zetland Lodge; St. Paul's Arch Chapter, Cryptic Council, Royal and Select Masters; Demolay Commandery, of which he was commander in 1923; the Scottish Rite Bodies Valley of Boston; was commander-in-chief of the Massachusetts Consistory 1937 to 1940, and a member of the Massachusetts Societas Rosicruciana.

While on the Board of Aldermen he was chairman of the finance committee for six years. As chairman of the soldiers' relief committee he conducted a survey of veteran and welfare problems in 72 municipalities.

Mrs. Eleanor Jackson was organist at the Eliot Church services and Stanley Muldrew, tenor soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer," and "Sunset and Evening Star."

The ushers, aides to Donald W. Vose, commander-in-chief of the Massachusetts Consistory of Masons, were: Robert Gerling, Donald Haskett, John Hall, Henry Bell, Parker Wood and Arthur Hall.

Other Masonic leaders in the delegation, besides Comdr. Vose, were Past Most Grand Master Whitfield M.

Johnson; Claude L. Allen, deputy for Massachusetts for the Supreme Council; Rutherford E. Smith, keeper of the archives; Herbert L. Faulkner, active of Massachusetts, and Past Comdrs. Hubert H. Bernard and Cecil C. Marble of the Consistory.

Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., Aldermanic President, Wendell R. Bauckman, School Committee Chairman Haskell C. Freedman and Sen. Donald L. Gibbs led a group of 100 city officials, department heads and employees. Also in the group were State Reps. George E. Rawson and Mrs. Irene K. Thresher.

Former aldermen in the group included Kenneth E. Prior, Carl F. Schipper Jr., Ernest G. Angevine, Fred C. Alexander, Clifford Walker, Joseph B. Davis, and Richard H. Lee who is also a former breach between himself and the upper legislative branch, as it is the way he has said it.

Political Highlights

When Furcolo declared that alashes made in the State budget in a widely publicized flurry of economy usually are quietly restored at a later date, he was, of course, right, and the Senators knew he was right. But he also worked in the theme that the budget-cutting was a "fraud" upon the public. That caused the Senators to bridle and bristle and to take another meat-axe swing at his budget.

In addition to Furcolo's inability to resist the temptation to direct a periodic jibe at the Senate, a basic reason for the friction between the Governor and the Solons of his own party is Governor Furcolo's advocacy of a sales tax.

Most of the Democratic Senators want no part of the controversial sales tax issue.

They don't want to vote for a sales tax. They don't want to vote against it. They don't want it approved by the House of Representatives so that it will come before them at all. As of now, the sales tax bill will be killed in the House when it reaches the floor of that body so that it will not get as far as the Senate on its first trip through the legislative channels.

There is nothing, however, to prevent Governor Furcolo from reviving the measure and sending it back to the Legislature a second time. In fact, that is exactly what most Beacon Hill observers anticipate he will do. That in no way would put the Senators in a better mood.

Meanwhile, the political pundits are speculating on how much, if any, harm has been caused to Governor Furcolo's future election prospects by his feud with the Senate.

The State House is no place to try to find the answer to that question because politicians invariably assume that if they're miffed with a Governor every voter in the Commonwealth shares their antipathy.

Past election results have shown the fallacy of that reasoning. In fact, there's good reason to assume that most people don't get too excited about rows between politicians.

No significance should be attached to the fact that Furcolo was booed when he was introduced to throw out the first ball at the recent Jimmy Fund game between the Red Sox and the Milwaukee Braves.

Politicians almost always get booed when they're presented to the crowds at baseball and football games, horse races and boxing shows. But that's a hard fact of life they never seem to learn.

Governor Furcolo may have gained or lost some popular support by advocating a sales tax, on which there is a very sharp split of public sentiment. But it's extremely doubtful that he has jeopardized his political future by quarrelling with the Senate.

What he has done is jeopardize his chances of rallying much support in the Senate for any controversial measure until he smooths down the senatorial feelings he has ruffled.

It should be remembered that Governor Furcolo's relation with the Legislature in 1957, his first year in office, were just as bad as they are now. In fact, they probably were worse. The sales tax was at the root of his troubles then with legislative leaders, just as it is today.

After experiencing very rough legislative sailing in 1957, Furcolo moved along smoothly in 1958, an election year, when he forgot about the sales tax, and went on to win reelection by a decisive margin.

Whether history will repeat itself is something only time will determine. But at this time two years ago many of the legislators who were at odds with Furcolo were declaring with great conviction that he was a one-term Governor and would be swept out of office in November, 1958. It didn't quite work out that way.

Kennedy Making Gains In Presidential Drive

Senator John F. Kennedy appears to be making consistent headway in his drive for the Democratic nomination for President.

The progress Kennedy is achieving must be making some of the other Democratic Presidential hopefuls a little jittery, for there is no indication that anyone other than the Bay State Senator is gaining any ground.

Kennedy, according to reliable reports, has sewed up most of the 16 delegates who will go to the Democratic national convention from Kansas, and he has been assured of the endorsement of Governor George Docking of the Sunflower State.

In fact, Kansas Congressman Newell A. George has proposed a Kennedy-Docking ticket as one which would have tremendous pulling power in the Middle West. Docking, incidentally, is the first Democratic Governor of Kansas in more than two decades and the first Democrat in the history of the State to be reelected to a second term as Governor.

Out in Wisconsin, which is expected to be a battleground next year for an important fight between Kennedy and Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, a poll showed Kennedy leading Humphrey by a 6-4 margin.

That is regarded as significant because Wisconsin is considered a state in which Humphrey should be very strong.

Mayor Ivan A. Nestingen of Madison, head of the Kennedy for President Club in Wisconsin, declares that if the Presidential primary were held today, Kennedy would win a majority of the Badger State's 28 delegates.

Democratic leaders in Wisconsin would like to avert a Presidential primary struggle between Kennedy and Humphrey, believing that it might stir up bitterness which would impair their party's prospects in next year's election.

Governor Gaylord Nelson sought unsuccessfully to persuade the Wisconsin Legislature to change the law so that candidates for election as delegates to the two national conventions could run uncommitted. The legislators, however, balked at the idea. The law was not revised, and the delegates must go to the convention bound to vote for a specific contender.

Kennedy apparently is willing to stay out of the Wisconsin primary in the interest of party harmony and allow Senator William Proxmire to go to the Democratic conclave as a favorite son candidate.

Humphrey, who is trying to establish himself as a serious Presidential aspirant, evidently feels that he must make a bid for the Wisconsin vote. If he moves into the fight, Kennedy would have no alternative but to follow suit.

Senator Kennedy also visited Ohio recently for a heart-to-heart talk with Governor Michael DiSalle, during which he reportedly made it plain to

Half-Way Houses

Editor, Newton Graphic:

There is a crying need for recuperating mentally ill patients! Hundreds of patients could be released from hospitals today being well enough to live at home, but unfortunately have no home to go to.

There is one alternative. A half-way house should be built. It is demoralizing for the patient to be kept confined when he or she has a good record of behavior and when improvement is a fact.

In this proposed half-way house a housemother could take care of the little things that are so important to everyone. A psychiatrist would be present but known by the patients as a friend and consultant. The environment must be closer to comfort to a home rather than an institution.

The members of a family who are reluctant to take their relative home will be less so when seeing the good results that are bound to come from a social environment and better living conditions. The object would be to prepare the patient for successful living outside of his walls.

All kinds of therapy—cultural, recreational and occupational should play a major role. Let us show an example to other communities instead of trailing behind.

The proposed half-way house would be a steppingstone in the right direction. It must be recognized that individuals must serve principles to make our communities a better place in which to live.

DiSalle that he does not intend to be the victim of any fast political shuffle in the Buckeye State.

Developments in Kansas, Wisconsin and Ohio, following the endorsement of Kennedy by Governor John Patterson of Alabama, all have served to provide added momentum to the favorite son candidate.

L. And, of course, he is virtually assured of the solid support of the delegations from the six New England States.

Kennedy obviously is making a tremendous effort to get his bandwagon rolling in order to attract Democratic politicians who wait until they see how the political straws in the wind are blowing before committing themselves.

Former Newton Girl Weds At Mattapoisett Church

Of interest here is the announcement from Mrs. Rufus A. Soule, III, of Mattapoisett, formerly of Newton, of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Joan Soule, to Mr. Kenneth L. Doane, Jr.

The Mattapoisett Congregational Church was the setting for the pretty summer wedding, at which the Rev. Fred-eric E. Raynard was the officiating clergyman. A garden reception followed at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Clinton W. Tylee of Mattapoisett.

Daughter of the late Mr. Soule, the bride was escorted by her brother, Mr. Rufus A. Soule, IV. She wore a gown fashioned of silk bombazine designed with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace. Her sabrina necklines was marked with pearls and iridescent sequins. Appliques of similar lace styled her full circular skirt, entraine.

Her Chantilly lace half hat was embroidered with seed pearls and caught with a fingertip illusion veil. Her cascade bouquet was designed of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor duties were performed by Miss Barbara Ann Contestable of Plainfield, N. J. Miss Judith Swanson of MRS. KENNETH L. DOANE, JR.

Newtonville and Miss Mary Anne Lorentzen of Worcester were bridesmaids.

Young Janet Soule of Marshfield was her cousin's flower girl. Master Charles Pettier of Chatham served as ring bearer.

Mr. John Edson of Chatham was best man for Mr. Doane, whose ushers were Mr. Ralph Landry of Chatham, and Mr. Thomas Doane, brother of the groom.

Miss Elizabeth Joan Wallis Wed To Robert H. Madden

Miss Elizabeth Joan Wallis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warren Wallis of 11 Doane avenue, Needham, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Homer Madden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen James Madden of 19 Hallron road, Newton Lower Falls, at a recent afternoon wedding in the Union Church of Waban.

In a pretty candlelight setting, the Rev. Joseph Cony MacDonald, D.D., performed the four o'clock double ring ceremony, and a reception followed in the church parlors.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of imported Swiss eyelet embroidered organically fashioned with a long molded torso, a scalloped sabrina neckline and short sleeves.

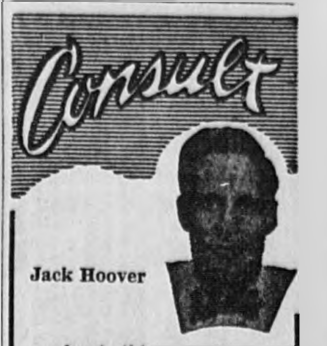

The very bouffant skirt had a band of pink taffeta at the waistline ending in back with two large pink roses and streamers extending to the hem of the gown.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of white roses, lilies of the valley, stephanotis and variegated ivy.

Mrs. Bruce D. Williamson (Virginia Wallis) of Ashland, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Joan Morrison and Miss Brenda Knight of Needham.

about this question: "1,856,000 men, women, and children suffered personal injuries last year from 11-100,000 auto accidents. This is an 18% increase in five years. Claims costs are up 20%. Can more cautious and courteous driving alone reduce accidents and auto insurance rates?"

City Holds Bike Safety Programs At Playgrounds

Bicycle safety programs, part of a city-wide project conducted through cooperation of the Newton Recreation Department and the Newton Police, were held last week at Cabot Park and at the Carr playground.

Safety Officer Charles Feeley of the Newton Police instructed a group of boys and girls in District 3 at Cabot Park on Wednesday morning, July 22.

He was aided in the program by the Recreation Leaders headed by William O'Connell. The Bicycle Safety Clinic consisted of 10 minute instruction and discussion of safety and proper bicycle riding procedures followed by a 30-minute ride in the Newtonville area. This was done so the children could apply methods learned in theory.

Those who took part in the program were: Joseph Beatty, Robert Hartford, Richard Hartford, Kevin Stokes, Richard Learned, Marjorie Gilman, Nancy Gullford, Michael Kenneally, Charles Reynolds, Louis Stavits, Steven Stavits and Robert Lang. The program at the Carr Playground, for the Newtonville-Nonantum area, was held Wednesday at 2 p.m. This area consists of the following playgrounds: Boyd, Carr, Hawthorne, High School, Horace Mann, Stearns and Victory.

Officer Feeley conducted his program in sections working with the large group, by small units and individually. A safety talk with question and answer period was participated in by all the youngsters. Actual individual and group participation and demonstration on sidewalks adjoining the playground street areas followed. A final safety talk with corrective measures and commendations where warranted was followed by a final question and answer period.

He holds two honorary Doctor of Science degrees, yet never attended high school. A farm boy from Howland, Maine, who left school at the age of 12 to work in a spool mill, he holds the distinction today of being one of the nation's senior electronics experts.

Spencer also is the holder of more than 100 patents. Training in the U.S. Navy as a machinist and radio electrician and a lifelong determination to "solve my own situation" made up for the schooling he was unable to complete as a youth.

Spencer helped develop the first gaseous rectifier in 1925 when he joined Raytheon. This made the radio a household plug-in appliance. He also was a leading figure in development of rugged submarine tubes needed for proximity fuses used so extensively during World War II.

During World War II, he helped make large scale production of radar possible by breaking a production bottleneck in manufacture of magnetrons, the "heart" tube of World War II radars.

He jumped magnetron production from 17 a week to 2800 per day. He perfected techniques which greatly extended the life of the magnetron, improved their stability, and made it possible to adjust them to specific frequencies.

For these efforts, Spencer won the Distinguished Public Service Medal, the Navy's highest award to a civilian. He was also awarded the Navy Certificate of Commendation and the Naval Ordnance Development Award.

Dr. Spencer holds honorary Doctor of Science degrees from the University of Massachusetts and Nassau College. He is a Fellow of both the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Institute of Radio Engineers, professional engineering society.

Manager of the Microwave and Power Tube Division for 17 years, he recently relinquished that post to devote full time to his duties as senior vice-president of the company—a post to which he was named in 1957. He was elected a director in 1955.

He resides at 31 Agawam road, Waban. A widower, he has three married sons.

Casper Bows In Golf Show

Two of the Bay State's top amateur golfers—Ted Bishop of Pine Brook and Dave Sullivan of Charles River—were really hot last Saturday at the Commonwealth Country Club.

They shot brilliant golf to win 4 and 3 over Billy Casper, the U. S. Open Golf Champion from Chula Vista, Calif., who teamed with club pro, Ted Zorilla.

Casper shot a steady 71 on the par 72 course, but Sullivan had one of his better rounds. Although he picked up on one hole where Bishop was clearly in command, the Charles River amateur who has no pro ambitions, was credited with a score of 69.

It was Casper's first golf in three weeks. He left the tournament circuit because he had a recurrence of a back injury, and went fishing.

Cart Thefts-

of $20,000 a year is lost each year by markets in this city on this one item alone.

These thefts are not the work of professional hoodlums. These losses generally can be traced to the careless housewife who leaves her basket in a street, or a far corner of a supermarket parking lot, to become a tempting target for vandals.

These losses are included in every store's operating expenses, and ultimately they come out of the patrons' pocketbooks in the form of higher prices.

This is elementary economics, the owners point out. And there is virtually nothing police can do about the situation.

"We get very few complaints," Newton Police Chief Purcell explained. "There have been reports of baskets full of food being stolen, but almost never of the basket or carriage itself."

"The markets permit the customer to wheel them home, with the idea of having them brought back. Each cart full represents about $15 or $20 worth of purchases, so the stores feel that if they refuse permission, the people will go somewhere else."

Chief Purcell says it's quite common to see someone wheeling a loaded carriage far from a store. Later some child may be seen pushing it back. But at the slightest distraction, the cart is abandoned.

"We call the markets as a favor when we find them abandoned somewhere," the chief said.

William Sklar, owner of Sklar's market, said the situation today is not as bad as it used to be, but added "it's bad enough."

"These carriages are worth up to $35 a piece," Sklar said, "and we lose at least 100 a year."

"It's hard to stop them. We have signs up all over, but still they are pushed away. We have no way of knowing if they are being pushed to a car, or pushed home."

"You could hire someone to watch them, but there is a question of which would be cheaper. The people don't seem to realize what these carts cost, and they don't seem to care."

The Newton Centre Market at 1241 Centre St., Newton Centre, estimate they lose about a dozen a year.

"They just disappear," it was explained.

"We don't lose any," they tell you at the Waban Market on 10 Windsor Rd., Waban. "If they have a lot of bundles we carry them to their car. Only a very few of our regular customers are permitted to roll the carriages away. We know they will be brought back."

Star Markets report they lose about 300 carts every year in their 11 stores, or an average of 10 to 20 for each store.

"Most people who roll them home just forget about them," an official said. "Sometimes we find carts belonging to other stores. And ours turn up somewhere else."

Market experts say this situation is far from being confined just to this area. The problem exists all over the country, and on a nationwide basis the losses run into the millions of dollars.

The situation on the West Coast is said to be so severe that newspapers and churches are aiding in an extensive drive to make the public more cognizant of the problem.

Special signs have been erected in shopping lots informing customers of the expense of the missing carriages.

Carriages are taken apart and left in the streets as a menace to pedestrians and auto traffic. Newsboys remove the baskets and attach them to bikes to help in making deliveries.

Housewives take them home for use as laundry baskets or a crib on wheels to park in the sun in the back yard.

Local Legislators Look At Bay State

Our People Must Learn To Insist That Government Spending Be Cut

By REP. GEORGE E. RAWSON

The time for Massachusetts to take account of stock is at hand. Among her assets is her healthful climate. Life insurance statistics show lower mortality here than the national average. Our educational facilities are among the best. A long coast line, many beautiful lakes and streams and the Berkshire Hills afford abundant recreational facilities which are so attractive that the state has thousands of summer vacationists from all over the nation. Many of the noblest shrines of American history are here.

The climate for business and industry, however, is our greatest liability. Since we lack natural resources our future is dependent upon business and industry to employ our people. In the effort to remain a great industrial state we are forced to compete with the other states. Prior to the advent of the New Deal Massachusetts had the most advanced social legislation and the most liberal labor legislation in the nation.

Upon that base has been imposed the New Deal and all that went with it. Many of the competing states have little but what the New Deal imposed upon

Second of Series

(As a service to its readers, The Graphic this week is publishing the second of a series of articles by Newton legislators on issues of public importance. The second article is by Rep. George E. Rawson.

Girls' Softball Tourney Starts On August 3rd

The Newton Recreation Department announced today that the annual City-wide Girls' Softball tournament will be held at the Newton High School girls' athletic field starting Monday, August 3, at 9:30 a.m.

The tournament semi-finals will be on Tuesday, August 4, and finals will be played on Wednesday, August 5.

Tournament winners and runners-up will receive championship certificates at their annual "Play Days" at the end of the summer season.

The 1958 Girls' Softball Championship was won by the Carr Playground Team coached by Mrs. Edith Wolcott.

Tournament director, Miss Lillian Swartz, has assigned the following officials: Leaders, Lois Anderson, Ann Lannon, Jane D'Ercole, Marilyn Flanagan, Bonita Brewer, and Anne Andrews.

Our corporation tax is 6.75 percent, and industry pays 3.5 percent of the cost of government. Connecticut has a corporation tax of 2 percent, and industry pays only 11 percent of the cost of government. Local taxes on real estate are the highest of any of the great industrial states—and industry is the heaviest local taxpayer. Only Georgia and Oregon have higher corporation taxes than we—and they have compensating features which we lack.

The rates for workmen's compensation insurance here are the highest in the nation—due to continuous liberalization of the coverage by our General Court because of pressure by the labor leaders.

Before merit rating was restored a few years ago we had the highest cost of unemployment compensation insurance in the country. If certain bills passed by the House and pending in the Senate are not defeated there we shall lose merit rating. The present administration and the present Democratic controlled General Court "jump through a hoop" to do the bidding of the labor leaders.

This is not a climate which invites new business and industry to locate in Massachusetts or to keep business and industry here. An abundant supply of skilled labor and top-flight research facilities are a help, but other states have them, too.

Massachusetts also faces a major challenge for the future. A reliable estimate is that we must have at least 90,000 more industrial job opportunities by 1970 to meet the needs of our expanding population. It will take $720 million of new investment capital to create these jobs.

Our vicious 7.38 percent tax on so-called unearned income, the highest such tax in the nation, does not induce the investor, the source of such capital, to remain here. A graduated income tax would be the last straw. It would drive him out of here altogether. We have already lost to Connecticut and New Hampshire vast numbers of people who would otherwise be a source of capital for our industries.

There must be a facing of the facts before it is too late. The cost of government must be reduced—for everything that government does means taxes. As Calvin Coolidge said, "There is no money in the Treasury except what is wrong from the pockets of the people by taxes." The people must learn to ask government to spend less—for the services demanded by the people largely determine the cost of government.

We must have a realistic tax policy by which every one contributes to the cost of government. Everyone uses the services of government; he should pay his share of the cost.

We must have an administration on Beacon Hill and a General Court there which will shut the door against legislation which penalizes business and industry, remembering that business and industry are the sole sources of the people's jobs. The task will not be easy even then, but it is the only way it can be done.

Your Newton Senator and your four Newton Representatives have consistently met the challenge but they are in the minority at the present time.

Poison Ivy Troubles Can Ruin Picnic Trip

Picnics, hikes and other summer-time outings fill up the social calendar of suburbanites during July and August—a time when wary parents keep an eye out for poison ivy plants near their picnic tables.

The simplest way to keep from getting poison ivy is to avoid touching the sap from the plant, the Mass. Department of Health advises.

Immunization medicines that prevent poison ivy dermatitis are now available, but they have to be taken prior to exposure to be effective and then the protection lasts only a few months.

CONTACT TWO WAYS

A person gets poison ivy by either direct or indirect contact with the plant.

Direct contact means that a person touches poison ivy sap as it flows from a broken or bruised part of the plant. Leaves, stems, roots, flowers, pollen, berries and fruit all contain sap.

Indirect contact means touching the sap while it is being carried by an animal, clothing, tools or other objects that have contacted a poison ivy plant. Smoke from fires in which poison ivy plants are being burned also can spread the sap.

Poison ivy sap is oily and doesn't evaporate quickly. For this reason, the sap can be poisonous for many months after the plant dies. Last year's plants, for instance, can still cause poisoning this spring.

INCREASES CHANCES

One out of every two people come down with skin inflammation the first time they contact the plant. The 50 percent who escape after the first contact may become sensitized with each repeated exposure. This means that each exposure increases their chances of developing dermatitis. This sensitivity is usually gradually lost, however, with age.

Chances of developing dermatitis are reduced if the skin is washed with warm water and a strongly alkaline laundry or kitchen soap immediately after exposure. Medicines that tend to prevent dermatitis can be prescribed by a physician.

Medicines also can be prescribed for reducing the itching.

ing, inflammation and duration of the dermatitis.

When a person gets poison ivy, the skin usually becomes red and starts to itch within 24 to 48 hours after the sap is contacted. Blisters and swelling appear a few days later and last about two weeks. The skin usually returns to normal in about a month after the original contact.

SEE PHYSICIAN

Areas of the body most frequently involved in poison ivy dermatitis are the fingers, hands, wrists, forearms and ankles. From these parts the disease may be spread to other body areas by scratching. Scratching also can lead to bacterial infections and severe secondary complications. To avoid complications, every person who contracts poison ivy, other than the lightest case, should be treated by a physician the state health department said.

The department said the poison ivy plant can be recognized by its shiny green leaflets which always grow in groups of three. The leaflets of the variety of poison ivy found in Michigan have smooth edges.

LIST RELATED PLANTS
Poison ivy grows in nature in several different plant forms—as a climbing vine up to 40 feet high, as a ground-hugging shrub or as an erect bush up to four feet high. It is found in woods, open fields and along roadways. In some areas, the bush form of poison ivy is known as poison oak.

Poison sumac, a related poisonous plant which also can cause dermatitis, usually grows as an erect shrub about 10 feet high. Its leaflets also have smooth edges but they grow in groups of seven to 13 on a single slender stem. Poison sumac is found only in swamps, marshes and other wet places.

Safe Driving Tips For Teenagers

The National Safety Council describes a free booklet of safe-driving tips for teenagers, which is distributed by a leading American oil company and its marketing affiliates as one of the most important contributions to safety ever made.

The tips come from professionals—the state patrolman, the test track driver, the trucker. Here are some of them:

1. Don't show off or clown behind the wheel. 2. Have guts enough behind the wheel to chicken out when common sense tells you it's time to give in. Never mind who's right—be smart—stay alive! 3. The public highways are for sharing, not competing. 4. The squeal of tires and roar of the exhaust may sound like hot stuff to a driver who needs it to build up his ego. But it tags him as strictly an amateur to the real pro. 5. The pro gives in to bad weather, bad roads, and traffic jams, and slows down. 6. Would your coach send in a player who has been drinking? Well, it goes double for driving. Remember—a half-loaded driver is more dangerous than a loaded gun.

Teenagers are involved in twice as many fatal accidents for the number of miles they drive as drivers over 25. This tragic and needless picture will change in a hurry if the young drivers will follow sound and simple tips like these.

To Limit Ticket Sales At Charity Football Game

LYNN — There will be a limited public sale of tickets for the coming pro football spectacle at Manning Bowl, Lynn, (Mass.) where the powerful Chicago Bears meet the Philadelphia Eagles in the Cardinal Cushing Fund Game, August 22.

Original plans called for no public sale. Tickets for this great clash were to be distributed privately among worthy charities regardless of religion. That is still being done but because of public pressure, a block of a few thousand good seats have been made available to the many football fans who will have no other opportunity to see professional football in this part of the country.

So, the game made possible by Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, who has underwritten the total expense for bringing these two great football squads here, may now be seen by all interested.

It's an attraction that sports fans shouldn't miss. The Eagles are on their way back up to the top which they held from 1947 through 1949, winning the world's championship two of these years. The Bears, of course, are the most in pro football history. They have captured seven world titles.

Both squads will come into this meeting with over a month of solid drills plus one game behind them.

Those wishing to sit in on this spectacle should move now since the public sale is limited.

Graphic Item Packs Chest X-Ray Clinic

The response to the notices put in the Newton Graphic two weeks ago regarding having a chest x-ray before going on vacation has been terrific!

"We never expected to receive so many telephone calls every day and throughout the whole day," said Miss Hilda G. Hope, executive director of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Ass'n. Miss Hope commented that the response indicates that people are really concerned about their health, even in this summertime weather. "Sickness is no longer considered only a winter affliction," noted Miss Hope.

The Wednesday afternoon clinic of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital is being scheduled to capacity, as a result of the newspaper notices. All appointments for the clinic must be made through the TB Association office.
